W.M.S. Holds Meeting

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Swannanoa Baptist church held its regular monthly meeting Tuesday night, June 12, at the church. The Rev. Mr. Young, Baptist minister from Westminster, S. C., and brother of Mrs. Clarence Wood, gave the devotions. Mrs. Fred Davidson, president, presided during the business session. It was reported that the W.M.S. furnished some of the food and served the picnic at the close of the daily vacation Bible school. The program was conducted by Mrs. Marion Taylor and was on the causes that will benefit from the Heck Memorial Fund Offering.

John Wilson III Has Party

John Wilson III, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Wilson of Greensboro, was given a birthday party honoring his fourth birthday, Saturday afternoon, June 16, by his grandmother Mrs. Carrie Porter, and aunt Miss Frank Davidson at their home on Bee Tree road. Games and fun were enjoyed during the afternoon. Children present were Kay and Fay Patton, Toby and Charles Patton, Warren Hutchins, Susan Cable and Tommy Leverette of Asheville, and Marshall Edwards. Adults at the party included Mrs. John Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Cable, Mrs. Arthur Leverette, Mrs. Paul Patton, Mrs. Jack Edwards, and Miss Minnie White. Cake, ice cream and punch were served. Johnnie received many lovely gifts.

Writes Original Poem

"First Things", an original poem by Quentin Enloe of Swannanoa, will appear later this year in a leather-bound volume published by the National Poetry Association of Los Angeles, Calif. The verse will be included in the "Voice of America," a book which will reprint the outstanding poetic works which have been published in over 200 annual anthologies of poetry during the past 14 years. After appearing in "Bluets," literary magazine of Asheville-Biltmore college last year, Enloe entered the verse in the North Carolina poetry contest in September. He received an autographed copy of "Rainbow Through the Web" from writer Lena Merle Shull when the poem was judged a book award winner in the state-wide contest. Shortly following last year's competition, he mailed the poem to Dennis Hartmann, secretary of the National Poetry Association in Los Angeles. A week later, he received a letter from Hartman, informing him that "First Things" had been selected to appear in the 1951 Annual Anthology of College Poetry. And, just recently, Hartman wrote Enloe again asking permission to publish the poem in the new "Voice of America" publication. Enloe recently graduated at Asheville-Biltmore college. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Enloe of Buckeye, and is married to the former Miss Margaret June Stephenson.

Beacon Tops Ecusta, 1-0

Leroy Bailey's two-bagger scoring Wade Martin in the first inning provided the Beacon Blanketeers with ample scoring to shut out the Ecusta nine, 1-0, Tuesday afternoon, June 12. The game was called at the end of the eighth after the last three innings were played in the rain. Lefty Bill Anders allowed the Papermakers only four hits. Jim Kilpatrick checked Beacon with only six safeties and got the only extra base blow, a double, off Anders. Fritz Merrell was the only Ecusta runner to reach third. He was left stranded when Anders fanned two batsmen. Charlie Ferguson's three hits in four trips was outstanding for the winners. Troy Drake had two for four for Ecusta. The win sent Beacon to within a game and a half of pace-setting Berkley.

HOW LITTLE IT COSTS TO PHONE!

Around-the-clock telephone service costs North Carolina homes an average of less than 1/4¢ an hour

Ever stopped to think how many trips your telephone saves you? Or what the transportation costs would amount to for the trips to town and across town that you avoid by telephoning?

Just think—the telephone stands ready to run errands for North Carolina homes 24 hours a day for an average charge of less than one-half cent an hour!

Whether you evaluate your telephone service in terms of transportation costs saved, time saved, "missions accomplished," protection in case of emergency—or just in the friendship and good times that result from keeping in touch—you'll find your telephone is still a big bargain!

H. G. BOOTH, North Carolina Manager

Growing Bargain

The price of telephone service has gone up far less than most things you buy. At the same time the number of telephones you can call at your local service rate has nearly tripled in the past ten years.
