

1951 POLIO POINTERS

RECOMMENDED BY THE NATIONAL FOUNDATION FOR INFANTILE PARALYSIS

These are precautions recommended by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis when polio is around. Also, wash hands before eating and be on the alert for such symptoms as feverishness, sore throat, headache, upset stomach or sore muscles. They may—or may not—mean polio. If the disease does strike, call your doctor promptly, follow his advice. Your local National Foundation chapter will provide needed assistance.

The mid-season banquet and exercises marking the close of the first five-week term of Camp Ridgecrest for Boys were held at Spillman gymnasium Monday evening at 6:30. Awards, certificates, letters and recognitions in riflery, tennis, riding, swimming, track, archery and organized sports were distributed. Trophies were awarded for best camper, most improved camper, and best midget camper. Program Director Cecil Lanier presided over this phase of the program. Camp Director George W. Pickering was toastmaster. Eighty-one boys were enrolled for the term.

The second term of five weeks opened Tuesday at Camp Ridgecrest with an enrollment of 135 boys, a record enrollment, and will close August 14.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Dew and children, Nancy, Betsy, and Joan, arrived last week from Lake City, S. C., and will be at their cottage "Nan-Bet-Jo" the remainder of the summer.

Dr. Annie Dove Denmark, president of Anderson college, Anderson, S. C., arrived Friday and will be at her cottage "Cragmo" during July and August. Guests of Dr. Denmark are Misses Claire Lucas and Elizabeth Tribble, members of Anderson college faculty.

A great asset to the Ridgecrest Assembly is the new book store. Saturday afternoon we strolled through it and were impressed with its beauty, spaciousness, lighting arrangement, loaded shelves, courteous clerks, assortment of books, church supplies, visual education equipment, pictures, books, books and best of all THE BOOK.

The new Nibble Nook housed in the big central building at the assembly is a thing of beauty, a place of laughter, a port for partaking of palatable pastries, a place for refreshments during refreshing moments, a place for all to enjoy themselves. It is a nifty nook where a nosy body with a notion can nibble on a nickel's worth of something nice.

Mrs. C. D. Creasman spent Wednesday with her sister-in-law and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Sam C. Gill. Mrs. Creasman is an author of note, playwright, dramatist, and director of religious pageants.

The Rev. Elbert F. Hardin spent Sunday in Gastonia where he preached morning and evening.

Joseph Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Y. Moore, is recovering from an eye operation which he underwent at an Asheville hospital last Friday. Good luck to you, Joe, and we all hope your blue eyes will never hurt you again.

Mrs. Harry Belcher returned Monday from Memorial Mission hospital, Asheville, after an operation from which she is slowly recovering.

Little Miss Sandra Wright, 5, came from Huntington, West Va., Saturday to be with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Wright. Welcome to Ridgecrest, Sandra. You will find a fine fellowship among our Ridgecrest children.

The vacation Bible school opened Monday at the Baptist church for the Ridgecrest children and their little friends who are here for the summer.

Dr. and Mrs. B. A. Bowers, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Kale took Monday off for a day at Mount Mitchell and other interesting points in the mountains. A good picnic dinner was on the program, of course.

Mrs. Nat H. Brittain is in Knoxville where she is visiting her aunt, Miss Mae Dunlap. From there she will go to Jefferson City, Tenn., for a visit with her uncle and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Hamilton, returning home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Allred left Monday after a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Allred. Theodore is still on crutches after the terrible auto accident he suffered several months ago.

John Allred returned Monday to his home in Norfolk, Va., after a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. —Turn to Page 3, this Sec.

RIDGECREST . . . ramblings

The July meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society at the Ridgecrest Baptist church on Tuesday afternoon, July 3, was featured by a most interesting and inspiring address by Dr. R. Paul Caudill, pastor of the First Baptist church, Memphis, Tenn., and our assembly preacher for the week. He spoke on the three great commissions of the risen Lord as given in Matthew 28, Luke 24 and Acts 1. He warmly approved the liberal giving of our good women to missions in many lands, but declared that any amount of money sent abroad could not atone for lack of personal work at home. He urged every member of every W. M. S. should be a person worker and soul winner in her own church and community. "If we witness unto the uttermost part of the earth we must begin at our Jerusalem," said Dr. Caudill. In the fine attendance were several visitors and a number of men. The president, Mrs. W. M. Pate, presided. The secretary, Mrs. E. F. Hardin, took the record. Mrs. Charles Jollay prepared the program. The music included a solo by Miss Essie Mae Smitherman, accompanied by Doris Ann Moss. The devotional included Bible reading by Dr. Hight C Moore and prayers were led by Mrs. George Green and Rev. Cecil M. Perry. The closing prayer was followed by a delightful social with refreshments served by Mesdames R. L. May and Clarence Allison.

BE SURE TO GIVE YOURSELF THE BREAKS, CONSULT US AND AVOID MISTAKES

I WOULD SUGGEST--

Mistakes in building or repairing are easy to make, but expensive to rectify. You lose the cost of tearing out and rebuilding, and valuable materials are lost.

You will always find us happy to help you with your building problems. Our years of experience in this business have given us a pretty good knowledge of building, repairing, and materials. Feel free to bring us your problems, big or small. We are always ready to help.
