YOU MAY STILL REINSTATE YOUR LAPSED GI INSURANCE WHETHER YOU'RE IN SERVICE OR OUT OF SERVICE . . . THE NEW INSURANCE ACT DOES NOT CANCEL YOUR LAPSED POLICIES

Holdings of National Service or U. S. Government Life insurance may add disability income coverage to their policies as the result of a decision announced today by Carl R. Gray, Jr., Administrator of Veterans Affairs.

In an official Administrator's Decision, Gray ruled that the recent enactment of the Servicemen's Indemnity and Insurance Acts of 1951 does not bar the right to apply for addition of the disability income provision to existing government policies.

The new legislation, Public Law 23 of the 82nd Congress, approved April 25, 1951, provided a free indemnity of $10,000 for persons in military service, and prohibited the issuance of new policies under the old plans after the date of its enactment, but protected the right to reinstate or convert such policies.

Administrator Gray's ruling holds that the prohibition against issuance of the new policies did not have the effect of repealing a policyholder's basic right to incorporate disability income protection into an existing policy so long as the applicant can meet the standard health requirements for such coverage.

The provision involved in the decision is one that provides income to the insured of $5.75 (for USGLI) or $5.00 (for NSLI) per month for each $1,000 of insurance to which it is added, in the event of total disability lasting six consecutive months or more. The disability protection feature is available at small additional premium cost to all holders of NSLI or USGLI which was originally granted on or before April 25, 1951, provided the veterans are in insurable health at the time they apply for coverage, and are within the age limitations—under 65 for USGLI, and under 60 for NSLI.

Q—My National Service Life Insurance term policy has lapsed—but the term period has not expired. Is it possible to reinstate it under the new "free insurance" law? I am a veteran, not on active duty.

A—Yes. Your policy may be reinstated on or before—but not after—its term period has expired.

Returned Missionary Is B&PW Club Speaker

The unfriendly climate and tropical diseases of Central West Africa are only a few of the problems which face the missionaries in that unexplored land today, members of the B&PW Club and their guests were told Monday night by Dr. George Greene who has returned from that country. The medical missionary spoke at the home of Miss Pauline Tipton. The inter-tribal wars add to the confusion and make the work of any foreigner more difficult, the speaker pointed out.

Dr. Greene was introduced by Mrs. Josephine Hickey. Hostesses were Miss Pauline Tipton, Miss Luella Jenkins, and Mrs. Garnet Greenwood, president, who presided.

Other members present were Mrs. Charlene Maydwell, Mrs. Harrie Danenhower, Miss Lillian Russell, Mrs. Madelon Parks, Mrs. Nancy Wily, Miss Frances King, Miss Sara Thompson, Mrs. Mary Beth Gudger, and Mrs. Maidee Love. Visitors present were Miss Mary Peele, Mrs. Greene, and Mrs. W. H. Tipton.

FORMER RESIDENTS

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Heart of Youngville, N. C., former residents of Black Mountain, visited Mrs. E. F. Smith and Mrs. O. B. Norton during the holidays.

EASTERN VACATION

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Aldrich, Jr., and daughter, Joan, who recently moved to Asheville from Black Mountain, left last Saturday for a vacation in Philadelphia and Ocean City, Pa.
