Directors Choose Unity Fair Theme

WMS WILL HEAR MISSIONARY FROM CHINA

The Woman's Missionary Society of First Baptist church will meet Thursday, July 24, at 8:00 p. m. in the memorial room. Miss Martha Franks, returned missionary from China, will be guest speaker. Any questions phone 5591.

Unity will be the theme of the 1951 Tri-County Fair. This was decided by the board of directors at the regular meeting at the town hall Monday night. Chairman Claude Betts called the meeting the most successful of the year.

Most of the organizations that plan to participate in this year's event were represented at the meeting and took part in the discussions which developed in regard to fair plans. The date has been set for the second week end in October, Friday and Saturday, October 12-13. A check with the weatherman showed these dates to have been free from rain a good portion of the time since the weather bureau was established. Mrs. S. S. Cooley was given the job of inviting the speaker, Governor Kerr Scott, who will open the fair, if he accepts.

District Heads Attend Lions Installation

Hugh Monteith, Sylva, retiring governor of district 31A, installed new officers of the Black Mountain Lions Club at the Monte Vista Thursday night. H. W. Sanders, international counselor, inducted district officers. T. W. Nesbitt, member of the Black Mountain High school faculty and who has not missed a day of school in 20 years, is the new president who will guide the Chairman Betts will have charge of the band, that representing the Rockell-Ballew Post in Asheville, and the Jaycees the parade. The Junior Woman's Club will organize and direct the football and fair queen contest.

It was voted to permit various civic clubs to sell ads for the fair book on a percentage basis. The participating clubs will receive 10 per cent of the net on the amount of advertising they sell. Dummy books will be made up and ready for the clubs in time for the next meeting on Tuesday, July 24, town hall, 7:30 p. m.

The charter for the fair will be dropped and each club assessed $10 to pay corporation taxes now due. Some clubs have already paid but those who have not will receive a notice within the next few days.

All organizations are requested to have representatives at the meeting on Tuesday to make applications for booths at the fair.

Sunburn, Blisters Wound Boys of Days Camp In Mountains

The street square dances will move up town. Friday evening at 8:30 the Tea and Topic Club will sponsor a square dance on State street between the red light at Montreat road and the Methodist church. All proceeds will be given to the fund which is being raised for the high school band.

Eugene Byrd, president of the Black Mountain High school alumni association, sponsors of the weekly dances, has lined up some of the best talent in Western North Carolina to furnish the music. Identity of the band has not been revealed but there'll be plenty of toe tapping and torso swaying when the band gives out with that "good old mountain music" along about 8:30 Saturday evening.

R. T. Greene, who has managed the dances for the alumni association, said today that Harold Brown, Luque Medford, Garland Bryson and Roy Stepp will be on hand to do the calling. Most sponsors would consider a dance a success if they had even one of these lads to direct traffic—but to have all four at once—that's just another indication of how much effort the Tea and Topic Club and alumni officials have extended to assure a good time for all those who attend.

Along about sundown when the air starts to cool and the breezes blow in from Blue Ridge, Montreat, and Ridgecrest, the crowd will begin to drift toward State street, downtown Black Mountain. Those who can't be there will miss the treat of the season and one big evening of fun and frolic. Put on your Sunday best or your everyday duds—but be present. There'll be rings for young, old, and the inbetweens. You can take your choice with no questions asked.

Rogers of the Ridgecrest Staff is the leading hitter in the Community Softball league, according to averages released from the office of the league president, Eugene Byrd.

Rogers has pounded out eight hits in 14 official trips to the saucer for an average of .571. More than 100 points behind are Ingram of Clearwater with .416 and Ramsey of the Youth Center and Wilson of Clearwater with .400 each.

In compiling the averages for the Big Ten, league officials considered only those who had been to bat 10 or more times. As the hot weather works the kinks out of the old soup bone, averages are due to hit skid row.
