

RIDGECREST ... ramblings

The Rev. H. O. Bilderback, Waco, Texas, a member of the Ridgecrest Assembly staff, occupied the pulpit here Sunday in the absence of the pastor, the Rev. Cecil M. Perry.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred M. Burnett last week were Mr. and Mrs. Tom Calloway and their sons, William and Edward, of Salisbury, Md.

Mrs. Ford Burns, manager of the Baptist Book Store, Kansas City, Mo., was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jolley during the Bible conference which ended at noon Wednesday.

Elsie Pittman, Old Fort, was the week end guest of Betty Allison.

Mr. and Mrs. George Reems and son, E. F. Reems, Greenville, S. C., en route to visit Mrs. Reem's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Shelton in Marshall, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hollifield during the week end.

Dr. and Mrs. Walter P. Binns, Liberty, Mo., were guests last week of Mrs. Edith Beam and her sister, Mary Ward, at "Galax Lodge."

Friends and neighbors of Mrs. Cecil M. Perry sympathize with her in the illness of her father,

R. C. Chapin, who is in a Newport News, Va., hospital.

Mrs. Cordie King and daughter, Mrs. Frank Walls, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jolley Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Turner have taken the Love apartment in Black Mountain. Mr. Turner has accepted a position with the Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea company.

Dr. B. A. Bowers preached at both services at the First Baptist church, Hendersonville, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Cole and children, Robin, Eddie and Virginia, arrived Friday from Baton Rouge, La., and will make their home at "Dream's End" while their parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Perkins, are in Smithfield.

Mr. and Mrs. James Yates, Dunn, N. C., spent a while visiting Mr. Yate's aunt, Mrs. Perry Morgan, Saturday.

Harvey Lee Akers, Portsmouth, Va., is visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Stepp, on the Black Mountain highway.

The Rev. Tom E. Walters arrived Monday for a vacation with his family at "Kozy Korner" cottage. Mrs. Walters and David have been here since June 1 and will return to their home in Fayetteville at the close of the season. Mr. Walters is our missionary in the New South River Association, and was at one time pastor of the Ridgecrest Baptist church.

Mrs. Nan Burnett, who has been living in Asheville for several years, has returned to Ridgecrest and is making her home with Mrs. Pickney R. Holman. Welcome back to this delightful community, Mrs. Burnett.

The Rev. Owen Moran, pastor of the North Little Rock, Ark., Baptist church, returned home today after a stay of two weeks at his cottage, "Idlewild," on Orchard road. He is a former pastor of the Ridgecrest church. A delegation of 22 accompanied him to Ridgecrest from the North Little Rock church.

The Rev. Cecil M. Perry and his son, William, are in Washington, D. C., where Mr. Perry is supplying the pulpit of the Constitution Avenue Baptist church for a couple of Sundays. William is sight-seeing and visiting his uncle in the capitol city.

Friends of the J. J. Johnson family regret to learn of the illness of Mrs. Johnson in an Asheville hospital where she went last week for a surgical operation. At last report she was improving and it is hoped she will soon be at home again.

Misses Annie Jo and Ada Law had as their guest last week Miss Cousin Law of DeLand, Fla.

Miss Glada Boyles, Fort Meade, Fla., has purchased a lot on Moore ericle and already is building a nice cottage on it. Joe Hollifield is the contractor and builder. Another good Floridan has become a better Ridgecrest.

R. N. Kent, Miami, Fla., arrived Saturday for a vacation with his family at their summer cottage. Mrs. Kent and the children have been here all summer enjoying the sky line scenery from their porch at "Pine Lodge."

Mary Ann Peebles, Pentagon Building, with the Air Force, Washington, spent the week end here. Miss Peebles was one time reservation clerk at the assembly. She plans to build a home on Patience avenue in the near future.

Mrs. Lena S. Barger, Mooresville, is erecting a nice cottage on a lot she purchased some time ago on Patience avenue near Rattle Snake Knob. It will cost close to twenty thousand dollars.

Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Bolton, Nashville, Tenn., have been guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Morgan for two weeks. Dr. Bolton is the executive secretary of the Baptist Foundation with offices in Nashville. They left for home Wednesday.

The Rev. Thomas T. Holloway, Dallas, Texas, spent several days last week with his family at the home of Mrs. Holloway's mother, Mrs. W. W. Lawton Sr. Mrs. Holloway, Thomas, and Sarah have been here since June. Mr. Holloway is district representative of the American Bible Society.

One hundred fifty Royal Ambassadors and their leaders from several states, spent last week at Camp Ridgecrest under the leadership of the Rev. J. Ivyloy Bishop, R. A. secretary, Birmingham, Ala.

The big annual music conference is in full swing with about fifteen hundred in attendance. It is the last conference of the season and one that is always enjoyed. The public is invited to the sessions and especially to the closing meeting on Wednesday when a trained choir of more than a hundred voices will give Handel's "The Messiah."

Dr. High C. Moore taught both men and women Sunday in a combined class session in the church auditorium. Dr. Moore is eagerly sought after as a Bible teacher, not only by our summer visitors but by his neighbors and friends here at Ridgecrest. It gives him unbounded joy to teach God's word at every opportunity. He has taught men and women the Bible in city, town and country churches for more than a half century. He has taught the Bible on the radio to millions in this country and to thousands if not millions in other lands by the printed word. The public is invited to his Bible class of men at the Ridgecrest church each Lord's day.

Mr. and Mrs. Craven Have Open House

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey B. Craven, Sr., were guests of honor at an open house Monday, Aug. 6, at their home in Lakeland, Fla. The event was given by their sons and daughters in celebration of their golden wedding anniversary and Mrs. Craven's birthday. Mr. and Mrs. Craven were married at the First Presbyterian church in Durham, N. C., on Aug. 6, 1901. At the time of their marriage, Mr. Craven was a professor of chemistry and physics at Greensboro college, Greensboro, and later served for 11 years as city superintendent of schools in New Bern. They moved to Lakeland in 1925 where Mr. Craven was a representative of the Hanchett Bond company of Chicago until recently. He is now retired. Mrs. Craven was the former Miss Alice Holman, a teacher in the Durham schools.

The Cravens have three daughters, two sons, and seven grandchildren. Mr. and Mrs. Craven and members of their family spend part of the year at their home in Ridgecrest.
