lue Ridge nd Far Horizans ost Grounds

The Blue Ridge Assembly and Far Horizons property (home Dr. and Mrs. W. D. Weatherd) together make up an estate 1700 acres, which is almost rgin forest and is filled with re flowers, shrubs, and lichens. is important that these property has preserved in their nais important that these propties be preserved in their naral state for the sake of the ousands of visitors who come Blue Ridge each summer. This, course, includes the preservation wild life. Nothing means more a low county visitor than to e gray squirrels, chipmunks, and rare intervals gray or red fox,
d mountain grouse (pheasants).
We have never before posted ese properties, but recently rsons, IRRESPONSIBLE PERONS, have literally wrecked the NS, have literally wrecked the ors and windows of a residence these properties. Last fall peris shot squirrels right at the Ridge building and in the mediate vicinity of Dr. Weatherd's home.

We have therefore reluctantly ided to post these properties have placed fifty signs promd have placed lifty signs promently on these grounds. WE RE FORCED TO SEE THAT HESE REGULATIONS ARE
BSERVED. We make this pubannouncement so that our ends will not embrasses themves or embarrass us. We simpcannot permit hunters with dog gun or loafers of any kind the grounds.

POET'S CORNER

Where Carolina ranges lift their summits highest from the sea, Mount Mitchell sits enthroned

Mute sovereign over all that moun-

erpice,
The latest summer blossomings are wafting perfume from his balsam groves;
The oldest winter frescoings bear
record in his bouldered coves,

And yet he's young; how young, who knows?

Through changing seasons yet un-born he'll watch the thunder storms in frolic at his knees, The while, for use as sturdy toys, he lends the tempest all his forest trees;

forest trees;
He'll be the first at every rising sun's salute to mark the birth of each new day,
