

Mrs. Goodson Hostess At D. A. R. Meeting

The Greenlee chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution met at the home of Mrs. W. T. Goodson, Black Mountain, Saturday, Oct. 27. Mrs. L. J. Dawkins, regent, presided. The meeting opened with the D.A.R. ritual, the American Creed led by Mrs. Goodson, followed by the singing of our national anthem.

Visitors welcomed by the regent were: Mrs. Roy Cagle, state chairman of American Indians, of the Ruth Davidson chapter; Mrs. V. V. McGuire, regent of the Ruth Davidson chapter, Asheville; Miss Mary Greenlee of the Mary Slocumb chapter, Mooresville; Miss Josephine Sanford, Old Fort, and Mrs. A. M. Dula Sr., Black Mountain.

During the business meeting, plans were made to take the dishes bought by the chapter to Crossnore. A thanks offering was taken for the Valley Forge bell tower. The time of meeting was changed from 7:30 p. m. to 3:00 p. m.

Mrs. Roy Cagle was introduced by Mrs. H. E. Dysart. Mrs. Cagle gave an interesting and instructive talk on the legends, customs and work of D.A.R. among the different tribes of Indians in America.

Refreshments were enjoyed during the social hour. Members present were Mesdames L. J. Dawkins, F. S. Bradsher, H. E. Dysart, A. E. Allamach, and Misses Mary Burgin, Ruth Greenlee, and Gertrude Dula and the hostess.

HOME ON LEAVE

Bill Stephenson, AN, has returned to Lakehurst, N. J., after spending a 14-day leave with Mrs. Stephenson. ## LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

(This letter was loaned to the Editor by Oden Walker.)

Mr. and Mrs. Oden Walker
Black Mountain, N. C.
Dear Folks:

When you called this evening about corn, I didn't know you, and learned afterwards from a neighbor who you were. I have wanted to meet Mr. Walker to tell him how much we enjoyed his articles in the News. We think you have the best column that we have the privilege of reading, and we take three daily papers and four weekly papers from the different communities we have lived in, and for just good homey reading yours surpass them all.

We are sorry to say we know very few folks in the North Fork country, but having read your articles for the past several months, we feel as though we know them all personally. We are leaving for our winter work in Florida now, but hope you will call on us next spring when we return to the mountains.

Be assured we have the Black Mountain News sent to us in Florida, and we won't miss a line in North Fork News.

Yours very respectfully,
A. A. Gregg.

SUNDAY GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Buckner of West Asheville were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Moore.
