Swannanoa P-TA

The Swannanoa P-TA held its monthly meeting Jan. 17 at 7:30 p. m. at the school. The meeting opened with devotionals by Miss Betty Estes, Bible teacher. During the business meeting the P-TA voted as a project to equip some of the class rooms with new blinds. The program speaker for the evening was Judge Shelby Horton. He is the county court juvenile judge. His topic was adolescent problems as seen by a juvenile judge. A good crowd attended the meeting. Fathers' night was observed and penny suckers were given to the group having the most fathers present. Refreshments were served in the lunch room following the program.

Future Homemakers Meet

A skit called "The Ins And Outs", presented by the 10th grade, took the spotlight on the FHA program Jan. 17 at Swannanoa High school. Those participating were: Edward Wilson, Bill Rogers, Bill Allen, Jo Mary McClure, Jackie Netherton, Betty Inturff, Ann Brown, Christine Creasman, Carolyn Porter, Joyce Owen, Carolyn Porter, Joyce Stuart, and Evelyn Mayfield. After the skit, a discussion took place on new students and participation of students in school activities.

The president, Zella Teems, appointed a committee to work up some suggestions on how to raise money. That committee is: Pat Stevens, chairman, Peggy Rayburn, Barbara Dillingham, Judith Fuller. Another committee was appointed to make plans for the annual FHA party. Specific details will be decided later. Committee members are: Jewel Cooke, chairman, Shirley McClure, Imogene Cody, Joyce Weatherly. The following women were asked to be chapter mothers: Mrs. Teems, Mrs. Stevens, Mrs. Alexander, Mrs.

McInturff, Mrs. Mayfield, Mrs. Howell, Mrs. Vaillincourt, Mrs. Ledford and Mrs. Lizotte.

Lt. and Mrs. John W. Ballard with their two small children, John Jr. and Sharon, who has been stationed for the past 4 years in Tokyo, Japan, returned to the States last week and have been visiting his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Ballard of Black Mountain, also his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hensley, Black Mountain highway, Swannanoa. They left Jan. 23 for the air force base near Pensacola, Fla., where Lt. Ballard will report for duty.

Mrs. Jessie Radcliff and Mrs. Walter Cooper of Highway 70 Swannanoa, spent the day with Bobby and Mrs. Bob Corson Wednesday, Jan. 9. They came to have
