employment on the base. He was graduated from Gloucester High school and served four years in the air force.

Following the ceremony a small reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fredwick Stone, who are old friends of the family. The bridal table was covered with an heirloom lace table cloth, centered with the wedding cake flanked by the candelabra with white tapers, and a large bowl of yellow daffodils graced the table.

The couple left after the reception for a trip to Canada. For going away the bride wore a pale rose knitted dress with matching hat, a dark brown fitted coat with brown accessories and the gardenias from her prayer book.

Out-of-town guests included: Mrs. H. A. Miller, grandmother of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lopes, parents of the groom, Miss Eunice A. Miller, aunt of the bride, Mrs. W. F. Gibbs, cousin of the bride, Mrs. Mardeth Phillips, cousin of the bride, Mrs. Dugald Jackson, cousin of the bride, Dr. and Mrs. Charles A. Kane and several relatives and friends of the groom.
