the week end in Greenwood, S. C., with their son, Alvin Wooten, and their daughter, Mrs. J. A. Eye.

Betty Allison, a student at Anderson college, is at home for spring holidays. Betty gives a glowing account of her school work as well as the extra activities of teaching a class of junior girls and being Bible Readers' leader in Training Union in the First Baptist church, Anderson. She is president of the freshman class at Anderson, a member of the Baptist Student Union council and the Young Woman's Auxiliary council. After spending this week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Allison, she will return to college Sunday afternoon. During the winter Betty has taught Training Union study classes at Star, Belton and the First Baptist churches in Anderson.

Miss Lunett Barbour, Clayton, visited Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Teague over the week end and attended the divine services with them at the Baptist church here Sunday.

M. O. Thornburg, Gastonia, spent a day here last week looking over his summer cottage. Friends of the Thornburgs regret to learn of the serious illness of Mrs. Thornburg, who suffered a broken hip in a fall several weeks ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Pearson and little daughter, Carol, Reidsville, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Y. Moore. Mr. Pearson returned home Sunday evening, leaving Mrs. Pearson and Carol to spend a couple of weeks with her parents.

Mrs. Edith Beam and sister, Mary Ward, were dinner guests of Mary Speight Saturday, returning to their home in Brevard in the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lequire moved from the Speight cottage last week to their new residence on the Black Mountain highway.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Willard K. Weeks Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hankamer, en route to New York from their home in Houston, Texas. Mr. Hankamer is chairman of the deacons of the First Baptist church in Houston where Mr. Weeks was director of religious education before coming to Ridgecrest to assume the position of business manager of the Assembly.

The April meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society was held at the home of Mrs. R. L. May Tuesday. "Hawaiians are Americans, Too" was the topic of the Wilmington, N. C.

Royal Service program presented by the president, Mrs. W. M. Pate, assisted by Sue Perry and Betty Allison who are spending a few days with their parents before returning to college.

Mrs. Frances Ross of Asheville is the new housekeeping assistant and companion to Mrs. Perry Morgan.
