NORTH FORK NEWS

OR

MOUNTAIN VIEWS

By Oden Walker

The Jasper Grants have moved back to North Fork. John Martin, Minnie, and this reporter visited the Joe Bruners and East Marion last Saturday evening.

The Rev. and Mrs. Bill Queen Hazelwood visited the Emory Highlands last Saturday.

Thad Burnett Jr. and family of Kingsport, Tenn., visited on North Fork last week.

Bascom Burnett had supper with us last Tuesday evening.

Thad Burnett is doing some repair on his house, and will soon move into it. We are so glad to have Thad as a close neighbor again.

Minnie and Mrs. Chester Miller visited the Cordells last Thursday.

Miss Kate Wicker is taking a trip to Richmond, Va. She will visit a number of friends and relatives, and plans to stay about two weeks.

Rear Admiral G. C. Crawford, wife and daughter, "Billie", spent several days at Forcliff, their summer place on North Fork.

Rear Admiral Crawford was commander of the Norfolk naval base, but is being transferred to New London, Conn., where he will serve as commander of the submarine base there.

Preparations are being made to build a bridge across the creek near Bob Burnett's ford.

Mrs. Blanche Henderson joined the Mountain View church last Sunday morning.

Visiting us last Sunday afternoon were: Mary and Clara Propst, Mr. and Mrs. Pink Lewis and son, Gerald, of Old Fort. Mrs. John Bruner of Marion, Mr. and Mrs. Bascom Burnett, the Misses Bessie and Lelia Zernow, and Vaden Marrett and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Hilary Williams and two chaps visited the Rev. and Mrs. Chester Miller Sunday afternoon.

three people who are good neighbors to us all, has had a spring dressing and trimming the like of which we've not seen before. The trees, shrubbery, and hillside by the good work done there by Dr. Moore, Mr. Wheeler, Mrs. Norma Moore, Joe Moore and Charles Belcher has transformed the premises into a place of even greater beauty to catch the eye of the passerby. A good example for others.

Mrs. E. Y. Moore returned last week and will be at their cottage during the spring and summer.

Dr. and Mrs. Wm. L. Hatcher are at home after five months spent at Monte Vista hotel, Black Mountain, while their house was being moved to a new site making way for the new highway.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Wooten spent —Turn To Page 8, This Sec.
