BAND WAGON

By Emilye Hawkins

Three outside practices have been held during the past month: during Easter holidays at the Methodist church, one at the Baptist church, and at Jack Farris home on April 29. Also a practice was held after a picnic at Mrs. Maydwells.

On April 23, a matinee concert was given at the grammar school. It helped us to get over some of our stage fright before the concert Friday, May 2. We had been working like mad for the concert lately, and practicing with the Glee Club Tuesday and Friday afternoons.

We have added shoulder straps and silver buttons to our uniforms, and citation cords are being awarded.

Twenty-seven students have expressed a desire to join up with the band, so we expect to grow a lot this summer.

Youth Temperance Council

The YTC met Friday, April 29, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hatcher in Ridgecrest. Inga Christensen presided. Mr. Hatcher read a passage from the Bible and led in prayer. Yvonne Nanney gave the special music.

Jack Farr reported on the rally in Charlotte attended by six of the members. Winston Riddle gave a book review on "Alcohol or Abstinence", a book recently donated to the school library by the club, and plans to attend YTC camp were discussed.

During the social hour a lively evening of games and music was enjoyed, and A. C. Ownbey and William Perry favored us with solos.

Refreshments were served to: Inga Christensen, Laurence Allen, Jack Farr, Yvonne Nanney, James

Allison, Donnie Brown, Emilye Hawkins, David Mundy, Winston Riddle, Naomi Elliott, Charles Belcher, William Perry, A. C. Ownbey and Mrs. Hatcher.

—It's thought to be lucky for people to stand during the home team's half of the seventh inning at a baseball game.
