Stroupe Named
Council President
At Swan. High

Friday, May 2, Swannanoa High students elected Jim Stroupe as their council president for the school year 1952-1953. Jim is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Stroupe. He is a rising senior and has done outstanding work in many fields of student activities.

Phyllis Hutchins was elected vice president in the same election. Phyllis is the daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Jack Hutchins. She has been outstanding in clubs of the school also.

Peggy Edmonds, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Edmonds, defeated her opponents for secretary-treasurer of the council. Peggy is a leader from the rising sophomore class. All three officers have shown marked ability in council work this year.

Eight candidates for the three offices spent four days last week campaigning. They and their campaign managers took the platform in assembly on Thursday and made rousing speeches in an effort to win more votes. The students cast their ballots immediately following the "stump" speeches.

The new officers will take the oath of office and assume responsibilities in September.

Home Ec. Girls Presented In Fashion Show

The Black Mountain High school P-TA was held Thursday evening, May 1, in the gymnasium of the school with Mrs. Fred Higginbotham, president, presiding.

Betty Shook opened the meeting with a scripture reading. A report was given by Mrs. D. M. Corkran on the P-TA convention held in Asheville recently. The program opened with several musical selections by the eighth grade girls. Miss Mavis Allman presented approximately 70 home economics girls in a fashion show. The clothes modeled were made by the girls in school this past year.

The gymnasium was decorated with arrangements of spring flowers and mountain greenery.

and Carolyn Smith who started in November, and were able to join our band after two weeks' practice.

Our newest members, Sarah Gouge and David Tyson, are coming along nicely.

The junior group in the grades (23 members) are starting practice as their instruments arrive, and plan to meet twice a week all summer as will the high school group. We plan several groups according to their progress and each player will be moved up as he progresses until he finally goes into the senior band. There will also be a string group to form an orchestra.

Awards — Band: greatest all-around contribution, Steve Kaplan. Greatest progress on instrument, Barbara Nesbitt and Paul Wright.

Glee Clubs: greatest all-around contribution, Nancy Dougherty. Majorettes, greatest all-around contribution, Evelyn Cooper.
