

MONTREAT

The Rev. John R. Williams, pastor, preached the sermon for the worship service last Sunday morning using as his text Acts, 2nd chapter and 33rd verse with the theme "The Meaning of Pentecost." The School for Girls' choir led the singing with Miss Elizabeth Woodhouse as director and Mrs. Clark Johnson at the piano. Montreat Day is to be observed next Sunday with special offerings for Montreat.

The baccalaureate sermon next Sunday, May 25, will be preached by Dr. W. H. McCorkle, secretary of evangelism for the board of church extension, Presbyterian Church U. S. The service will be held in Gaither chapel.

The commencement address for the school and college will be delivered by the Rev. James G. Patton, D.D., executive secretary of the general council. These exercises will be held in Gaither chapel at 10:00 a.m. Monday, May 26.

There was an unusual number of summer residents and guests present at church on last Sunday.

The flowers in the sanctuary last Sunday were given by Dr. Marjory Lord in memory of her father, Mr. Lord, who was an elder in the Presbyterian church and a well beloved resident of Montreat until his death.
