Mrs. Thomas S. Sharp Is New President

The Asheville Branch of the National League of American Pen Women held its May meeting Saturday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Russell Norburn, 54 Hilltop road, Biltmore Forest. After a short business meeting the president, Mrs. R. R. King, installed the following new officers: president, Mrs. Thomas S. Sharp; vice president, Mrs. James A. Crawford; treasurer, Mrs. Harvey Hand; recording secretary, Miss Marguerite Evans; and corresponding secretary, Miss Elizabeth Fields.

Mrs. G. W. Meade, program chairman, introduced the speaker, Mrs. L. D. Hayman of Black Mountain, who on account of the illness of Mrs. James A. Crawford, very graciously substituted for her, giving Mrs. Crawford's prepared program, "Manuscript Markets." She also displayed magazines sent by Mrs. Crawford so that the members might know the magazines that each prefer.

Mrs. Crawford has been quite successful in having her poems published in the best national magazines. Mrs. Hayman also contributed toward the program by giving her experience in having poems published. She read by request her lovely nature poem, "Winter", from the Country Poet. Miss Sarah Dippenhaver and Mrs. E. A. Ogle spoke on the publishing of music and Mrs. Lowell Wright on exhibiting and marketing her paintings. The entire program was most helpful and inspiring. The tea table was exquisite in its appointments. Mrs. R. R. King, now state president, presided at the punch bowl and Mrs. G. W. Meade poured coffee.

The next meeting will be a covered dish luncheon at Mrs. Lowell Wright's home, 81 Macon avenue, the third Saturday in June.
