

Camp Meeting To Open Sunday At Blue Ridge

Charlotte, N. C., May 21 — Seventh-day Adventist churches throughout North and South Carolina are being notified by conference officials that the 21st biennial conference session will be held in conjunction with the annual Camp Meeting scheduled for May 25-31 at Blue Ridge assembly grounds near Black Mountain.

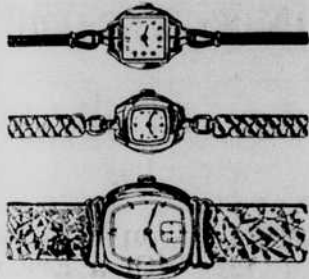

Delegates from all the churches in the two states meet in session every two years for the purpose of electing new officers for the next two-year term of office, C. J. Lauda, Carolina conference president explained at headquarters here today.

Over 3,000 members and session delegates are expected to attend this seven-day meeting at Blue Ridge assembly. The session opens Monday morning, May 26, at 9 o'clock.

The regular camp meeting services begin Sunday night of the 25th, and leading speakers from the denomination's world headquarters in Washington, D. C., the

Mrs. H. C. Ostrom Dies At Bridewood

Mrs. H. C. Ostrom, a retired missionary from Japan, died early Wednesday at Bridewood where she had made her home for the past five years. Funeral services were held this morning at Red Springs, N. C., where her only sister, Mrs. J. E. Purcell, resides. Mrs. Ostrom and her husband, the late Dr. Ostrom, went to Japan as missionaries in 1910. She returned to the States following his death in 1937. She came to Bridewood to make her home shortly after that time.

Southern Union Conference office, Atlanta, Ga., as well as missionaries from overseas, will be featured during the week's meetings.

H. M. S. Richards, Los Angeles, Calif., Voice of Prophecy speaker, the denomination's world-wide weekly radio broadcast, will speak at the opening service Sunday night, and nightly through Wednesday night. The King's Heralds radio quartet, Miss Del Delker, contralto soloist, who sing in several different languages for the Voice of Prophecy broadcast heard in other countries, will also be on these evening programs, Mr. Lauda said.

He also announced a professional "fellowship meeting" of the physicians, dentists, ministers, and teachers preceding camp meeting. This fellowship meeting, designed to bring spiritual power to the professional leaders of the conference, will open Friday, May 23, and will close Saturday night.

Teresa Dougherty Has Birthday Party

Mrs. Charles A. Dougherty entertained with a party to honor her daughter, Teresa, on her seventh birthday, Wednesday, May 14, at their home on Vance avenue. Games suitable for the occasion were enjoyed by the group.
