Our country is UNITED

Of course we don't agree on everything—never have—never will—and wouldn't like it if we did . . . except about one thing—our right to disagree, and say so loudly. Fools—and enemies—sometimes think those loud sounds mean we are not united . . . but we know our basic unity is there, as strong as the day our name was chosen—actually stronger, because now there are so many more of us agreeing on that one important thing.
