Tight Pitching Feature Of 1st Ladies' Games

Three games were played on opening night of the Women's league on Thursday, July 3.

In the opening game of the evening the Methodists hammered out a 12 to 8 decision over the Baptists. In the second tilt the Independents pounded out a 7-3 win over Friendship. Ridgecrest beat the Presbyterians, 7-3, in the final game of the day.

Feature of the evening was the pitching of Tyson and Reeder. Tyson of the Independents limited Friendship to two hits, and Reeder of Ridgecrest gave up the same number in leading her team to victory over the Presbyterians.
