By Mrs. James E. Woolley

Route 1, Swannanoa, N. C. Phone Asheville 3-1878

Miss Zeldia Mae Teems, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Teems of Black Mountain highway, became the bride of Frank Wallace Kasey, with matching mitts and headress son of Mrs. J. B. Kasey of Church and Oteen Baptist church. The Rev. W. L. Bierer, pastor of the church, officiated in the double ring ceremony. A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. Esther Bierer, vocalist, and Mrs. Edith Carter, organist.

The altar was decorated with white gladioli and ferns with candelabra in the background holding lighted tapers.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of ice pink slipper satin with a sweetheart neckline and long sleeves ending in points over the hands. She wore a fingertip veil of illusion attached to a coronet of seed pearls and rhinestones. She carried a white Bible topped with white rosebuds with streamers of white satin.

The bride's mother wore a grey suit with black accessories and a corsage of red rose buds. The bridegroom's mother wore a grey suit with navy accessories and a corsage of red rose buds.

Mrs. Nadine Martin, sister of the groom, was matron of honor.

She wore a dress of robin egg blue net over taffeta fashioned with a gathered yoke and puff sleeves with matching mitts and headress flowers.

Berkley Ruiz was best man. Ushers were Arnold Teems, brother of the bride, and Howard Martin, brother-in-law of the bridegroom.

For the wedding trip the bride wore a navy blue suit with navy and white accessories and the corsage detached from her Bible.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Mrs. Kasey is a graduate of Swannanoa High school and Mr. Kasey a graduate of Biltmore High school.

The W.S.C.S. of Bethesda Methodist church met Friday evening, Sept. 12 at the home of Mrs. James Tuck on Trinity Chapel road. The meeting opened with a hymn. Mrs. H. C. Miller gave the devotional using II Corinthians, fifth chapter as her scripture. The theme of the program was "That the Kingdom of God May Be Realized." ## CHRISTIAN ASSEMBLY NOTES

Last Sunday church services were held in the Jr. Order hall for the first time. That hall will be the winter quarters of the church with Sunday school being held there every Sunday at 10:00 a. m., and worship services every other Sunday at 11:00 a. m.

The Christian Women's Fellowship met at the home of Mrs. Ed Dupuy Wednesday evening. A very satisfactory business session was held with a most inspiring program following.

The board of the First Christian church will meet Friday evening at 7:30 p. m. at the home of B. L. Marett. All members are urged to be present.

Local members of the executive board of the Christian assembly have agreed to assist Dr. H. S. Hilley, the executive secretary, by attending several state conventions of the Disciples Churches to present the invitation to those states to come into the association and assist in promotion of the assembly grounds at Black Mountain.

Dr. Hilley has personally attended the state conventions of the seven states that are now participating in the planning.

The following persons will attend the conventions on the dates listed, taking for display maps, paintings and photographs of the area with folders and pamphlets describing the progress to date and the future needs and programs: Sept. 23-25, Somerset, Pa., Dr. H. S. Hilley; Oct. 10-12, Jennings, La., Dr. Hilley; Oct. 9-12, Princeton, W. Va., Mrs. Hilley; Oct. 12-15, Danville, Ill., Mary E. Aleshire; Oct. 14-16, Richmond, Va., Mrs. Hilley and Mrs. L. T. New; Oct. 20-22, Columbus, Ohio, Mary E. Aleshire; Oct. 14-16, Lexington, Ky., Mrs. M. H. Strain; Oct. 20-22, Greenville, S. C., Mr. and Mrs. L. T. New, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Davis; Nov. 11-13, Raleigh, N. C., Mr. and Mrs. New, Mr. and Mrs. Dixon, Dr. Hilley, Mary E. Aleshire, Mr. and Mrs. Davis.

In making these invitations the local committee has been briefed to tell of the beauties of the scenery, the equable climate, the neighboring assemblies, the progressive town of Black Mountain and its accessibility from the great population centers of this country.

Plans are being perfected for building camping facilities for at least 10 families at the assembly grounds to be available for the summer of 1953. A shower house

LEGION AUXILIARY HOLD MEETING MONDAY NIGHT

Mrs. J. T. Simpson was hostess to the first meeting of the new year of the American Legion Auxiliary Monday night at her home.

Mrs. Robert Haut, president, presided during the meeting. Plans for the coming year's work were made and discussed.
