Isn't This the BEST Way To Finance a Car?

The answer is "YES" . . . a bank loan can often save you important money on your car financing charges.

One thing sure: You have nothing to lose and plenty to gain by getting the facts - and figures.

So why not come in and let us tell you exactly what it will cost you to finance a new or used car the bank loan way.

Then make your own comparisons, draw your own conclusions . . . and act on your own good judgment.

We think you'll be glad you investigated!

B & P W Club Adds Members, Starts State Project

At the meeting of the Business and Professional Woman's club Monday night at the Monte Vista hotel, Dr. Fronde Kennedy gave a brief but interesting book review on two of the latest religious novels, "The Silver Chalice" by Thomas B. Constain and "Gown of Glory" by Agnes Turnbull.

Mrs. Bessie Carr spoke to the group, asking their cooperation in having 15 donors for the blood bank on Nov. 20 at the Presbyterian church. Miss Sarah Thompson and her committee presented each member with a small bank and a new penny to start a fund for a state project.

Mrs. Gustava Brown, president, expressed the regrets of the club to Miss Luella Jenkins, who is moving to Asheville. Miss Catherine Smith, a nurse at Moore VA hospital, was voted into the club as a new member.

Those present for the meeting were: Mrs. Josephine Hickey, Mrs. Nancy Wylie, Mrs. Maidee Love, Miss Pauline Tipton, Mrs. Brown, Miss Alice Turner, Dr. Kennedy, Miss Lucy Grier, Miss Lillian Russell, Miss Luna Wagner, Miss Marjorie Robinette, Miss Annie Hudson, Mrs. Margaret Ertel, Miss Jenkins, Mrs. Carr, Miss Thompson and Miss Navy.

P-TA Group Hears Faculty Discuss Goal For Pupils

The High School P-TA held its regular monthly meeting at the school library Thursday evening, Nov. 6.

The Rev. Thad McDonald opened the meeting with a short talk and prayer. David H. Corkran, program chairman, introduced Eugene Byrd, a member of the faculty, who acted as moderator for the discussion which followed and which consisted of an explanation by each member of the faculty who explained their particular goal for the students.

Miss Ruth Gilbert, membership chairman, reported good progress had been made in obtaining memberships.

The next meeting is scheduled for Dec. 18, at which time the Beta club will present a program.
