"That Call"

"WAS WORTH A MILLION, SON"

"What a grand surprise! I wasn't expecting you so soon. When you phoned from the station and said you were back, I could hardly believe it. And now you're really here. It's wonderful!"

Good news travels fast... especially by telephone. The usefulness of telephone service can be beyond price in moments of happiness as in moments of anxiety. When such moments come, you are thankful for the quick reassurance a telephone call can bring.

Day in and day out, your telephone proves its value in so many ways.

Today there are more than twice as many other telephones to call as there were 10 years ago. Yet the price of telephone service has gone up less than most prices.

MONTREAT

The Columbia Seminary team had charge of the morning worship service in Gaither chapel last Sunday. The team consists of four men, Lardner Moore, born in Japan, son of Presbyterian missionaries, Pat Pateson of Richmond, Bill Esty of Florida, and Bud Mellor of Arkansas. Bill read the scripture lesson, Pat had the pastoral prayer and Bud preached the sermon. After the offering Lardner sang very effectively "The Stranger of Galilee." The team, who are students of Columbia Presbyterian seminary, Decatur, Ga., came in observance of a Youth Sunday.

The pastor of the Montreat church, the Rev. John R. Williams, returned on last Monday after an absence in Montgomery, Ala., where he has been conducting a series of services.

The pastor of the "Phillipians" in the series of St. Paul's epistles will be given by the pastor in the Wednesday prayer meetings, 4:00 p. m. in the sun parlor of the Inn, and 7:15 in Gaither chapel.

A number of Montreat people attended the Mountain Orphanage open house last Sunday and the Sunday before.

A few friends of the late Mr. and Mrs. Crosby Adams made a pilgrimage to their graves last Sunday, the anniversary of Mrs. Adams' death, and placed flowers there.

The flowers in the sanctuary last Sunday morning were the gift of Dr. and Mrs. Geza Soos in appreciative acknowledgement of the day, Nov. 9, which marked the anniversary of their arrival in Montreat. Dr. and Mrs. Soos held open house in their home Sunday afternoon from three to five and from eight to ten in the evening. During the evening Dr. McGregor led a short devotional service. We might add, it was a happy day for the Montreat people when the Sooses arrived in their midst, just one year ago.

The November meeting of the Women of the Church, Mrs. John Payne Williams, president, will be held in the sun parlor of the Inn, Tuesday, Nov. 18 at 4:00 p. m.

Miss Nannie Watkins of Montreat and Miss Louise Simmons of Black Mountain attended a meeting of the alumnae association of Randolph-Macon Woman's college on Nov. 7. The meeting was held in the home of the president of the Asheville chapter, Mrs. Manly Wright of Griffing boulevard.

Mrs. Geza Soos of Assembly drive was the speaker at the World Community Day observance sponsored by the Asheville Council of United Church Women, Friday, Nov. 7 in Trinity Methodist church.

Mrs. Mellinger Henry of Virginia road spoke on her hobby of collecting folk songs and ballads to the members of the Swan-Oteen Woman's club the afternoon of Nov. 5.

Miss Virginia Neville of Greenville, S. C., and David Wyatt Neville of Newberry, S. C., spent the last week end in Montreat.

Miss Mirta Borges, formerly a teacher in the Montreat School for Girls and now studying in the Eastman School of Music in New York, was a visitor in Montreat for a few days last week.

Miss Nancy Armistead, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Armistead of North Carolina terrace, has been chosen an attendant of the court which will be the center of festivities during the May Day celebration on the Queens college campus in Charlotte next spring. Nancy, a senior, transferred to Queens at the beginning of her junior year and this year is vice president of her class.

Mrs. George Ennett, who has been visiting in Edgefield, S. C. and Charlotte, N. C., has returned to her home on Virginia road.

World Community Day observance, sponsored by the United Church Women of Black Mountain and vicinity, was held Friday night, Nov. 7, in the Black Mountain Baptist church. Those attending from Montreat were Mrs. J. P. Williams, Mrs. Charles Brinkhoff, Miss Helen Miles, Mrs. Mellinger Henry, Mrs. Thomas Spence and Miss Julia Stokes. Gifts of baby clothes and money were presented which will be sent to Korea.

There was an interesting program given with Mrs. S. S. Cooney, chairman. The Montreat college choir, under direction of Francis Green, sang several selections.

Mrs. Gaylor has returned to "Bridewood" after spending some time in New England.

Miss Leila Kirkland returned to "Bridewood" last week after a vacation with relatives in Kentucky.

PERK UP MEALS WITH CRANBERRIES

Here is a new relish that will give extra zip to the weekly fish dish. This will complement any fish flavor, while giving it an unusual autumn touch.

Cranberry Relish
2 cups cranberries
1 cup sugar
½ cup water
2 tsp. lemon juice
½ cup sliced or chopped celery

Combine cranberries, sugar and water in saucepan, and cook until cranberries are soft. Remove from heat; cool slightly, then add lemon juice and celery. Chill well before serving. (Makes about 2 cups.)

If fresh cranberries are not available, use one 16-oz. can of whole cranberry sauce. Stir in lemon juice and celery, and chill for at least 30 minutes before serving.

Here is a rich red and gold gelatin mold which tastes every bit as good as it looks:

Orange-Cranberry Gelatin Mold
2 tbsp. plain gelatin
½ cup cold water
½ cup hot water
3 cups orange juice
½ cup sugar
1 cup cranberries, chopped
Grated peel of 1 lemon
Grated peel of 1 orange
1 orange, peeled & cut into chunks
½ cup chopped pecans

Soak gelatin in cold water 5 minutes. Add hot water to dissolve gelatin. Stir in orange juice and sugar. Pour enough gelatin mixture into mold to form ½-inch layer. Allow to set. Stir cranberries, lemon peel, orange peel, orange chunks and nuts into remaining gelatin mixture. Gently spoon over clear layer of mold. Chill until firm. Makes 6 to 8 servings. (For a stronger orange flavor, grind the whole orange and cranberries in the food chopper, using the finest blade.)

SLIDES ARE SHOWN GIRL SCOUT TROOP

The Girl Scout neighborhood group, consisting of leaders, assistants and troop committee members, met Monday night, Nov. 3, at the city hall. Miss Enid Ayres, professional staff member of the council office in Asheville, led the group in singing, followed by a showing of slides on "Getting Along in a Troop" which led to a discussion of various troop problems. Mrs. Anne Sharp Harrison, neighborhood chairman, presided.

The next meeting of the group will be held the first Monday night in January. Any woman in the community interested in assisting with Girl scouting, please call Mrs. Harrison.

MRS. MELLINGER HENRY WOMAN'S CLUB SPEAKER

The Swann-Oteen Woman's club met Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 5, in the nurses club at Moore VA hospital, Swannanoa, with Mrs. Albert Burr, Mrs. Harry Hubbard, Mrs. R. H. Kaplan, Mrs. C.
