Miss Dillingham's 2 B-1
We have a new boy in our room. His name is Nicky Cream. Nicky comes to use from Claxton school in Asheville. We are very glad to have Nicky in our room. Sandra King's mother visited our room last week in connection with the observance of American Education Week.

Health And Daily Diets
Mrs. Brown's class has been studying about the value of fruits and vegetables in daily diets. In our health book there are menus like this: At least one serving each day, some kind of citrus fruit or juice. One serving of raw cabbage, salad or one serving of salad greens. One yellow vegetable, milk, meat and whole wheat bread.

Here is a copy of the menu served in the school lunch room from Nov. 17 to Nov. 21 which we enjoyed. We have an average of 33 boys and girls from Mrs. Brown's room eating every day in the lunch room. We are allowed extra bread and, of course, have whole milk with each meal:

Nov. 10, macaroni and cheese, green beans, beets in vinegar, apples, whole wheat bread.

Nov. 11, pink beans, potato sticks, tomato pudding, onion rings, cookies, corn bread.

Nov. 12, barbecue sandwich, potatoes, peas, grapes, white bread.

Nov. 13, ham, sweet potatoes, spinach, oranges, biscuits.

Nov. 14, fish fillets, potato chips, green beans and corn, donuts, whole wheat rolls — whole wheat bread.

7 B-1 Enjoys Thanksgiving
Between each holiday Mrs. Croy's 7 B-1 grade has a contest to see who will serve refreshments. The boys stand against the girls. They win points by giving clothing to needy, and bringing books for Mrs. Croy to take to the hospital, also for grade achievement. At Halloween the girls stood over the boys by 1,224 points to 224. This Thanksgiving, so far, the boys are ahead, but the girls are trying to at least tie them. We have wonderful grademothers this year. They are helping us in all our work and studies.

—By Joann Surret
Mrs. Hipp's 7 B-3

We have organized our class and the following officers were elected: Carolyn Magnant, president; Gary Edwards, vice-president; Ruth Clayton, secretary and treasurer; Robert Hughes and Wynona Howie, class reporters; Helen McKinney and Gary Edwards, program committee; Sandra McCall and Tommy McPeters, class doctor and nurse. We have our class meetings twice a month.

We enjoyed displaying our table for American Education Week. The work was the result of both individual and committee work in summarizing units. The pieces of 17th century furniture were examples of the furniture in the homes of English colonists.

Colonial And Indian Exhibit
The eighth grade last week sponsored a Colonial and Indian exhibit to celebrate American Education Week. The exhibit was held on the second floor of the high school building, Tomahawks, spears, arrow heads, and knives were contributed to the Indian section of the exhibit by Ruth Allen, David McMahan, Charles Surret, Jack Owens, and Ronnie Redmond.

There were many interesting old objects contributed to the Colonial exhibit. Jackie Surret contributed some old glassware. An old froe about 175 years old, used for splitting shingles, was contributed by Everett Jenkins. Some old handmade table linen that belonged to her great-grandmother was contributed by Helen Green. Marie Wright contributed old candle molds and a honeysuckle basket.

Mrs. Mary Stevens contributed two copies of Noah Webster's Old Blue Book Speller. There was a copy of Milton's Paradise Lost, illustrated by Dore, contributed by Mrs. Sawyer. Mrs. Noah contributed an illustrated Catechism dating back to 1870. An old arith-

JR. HI-Y. MEETS FRIDAYS
Last Friday the Jr. Hi-Y club had its first meeting in Mr. Shaver's room. There were 13 boys present. The meeting was opened with the reading of Psalm 54 and a prayer.

The guest speaker, Coach Hornaday, spoke on sportsmanship. "When the great Maker writes beside your name, it's not a mark of whether you won or lost, but how you played the game."

After the speech there was a discussion on how to raise ten dollars to join the Y-basketball league. Then we joined in a friendship circle and had a closing prayer. This ended the first meeting of the Jr. Hi-Y of Swannanoa. The next meeting will be held Friday.

SUBSCRIPTIONS
Last week each room started getting subscriptions for the Black Mountain News so we can have more readers. There have been 23 subscriptions from both high school and grammar school.

Beta club journals were given out and the meeting was turned over to Peggy Yow, program chairman. Jo Mary McInturf gave the devotions and Ariel Young made a speech on "The Importance of an Education."

The various committees met following adjournment.

GIRLS SCRIMMAGE BEACON
Swannanoa High girls team and Beacon Mills team clashed recently for the experience. Although Beacon Mills played textile rules and had more experience, the school gave them a pretty rough time. The school hopes to beat them next time, but if we don't we will just have to try again.

The starting lineup for Swannanoa High: forwards were Laura Smith, Barbara Harding, Nancy Jones. The guards were: Jacquiline Harper, Jackie Allen, Ann Shaver.

Beacon started out with Peggy Foster, Doris Johnson and Evelyn Roberts as forwards. Betty Stroupe, Marilyn Huntsinger and Norma Hussey were guards.

Every girl on the Swannanoa team got to play and all 34 of them played a good game.

Nov. 24 - 26 Menu
The following is the luncheon menu for Thanksgiving Week, Nov. 24-26.

Monday: tuna fish casserole, buttered peas, glazed carrots, grapes, whole wheat bread, and milk.

Tuesday: soup beans, onions, carrots, cocoanut and raisin salad, canned tomatoes, cornbread, and milk.

Wednesday: turkey, rice, gravy, dressing, green peas, cranberry sauce, hot rolls, and milk.

PICTURES TAKEN
Mr. Strawbridge came to Swannanoa on Thursday and Friday to take the students' pictures. As before, the students will be allowed to buy pictures. Those wishing to have their picture in the annual must pay for the picture that is entered. All the seniors had their pictures taken in their caps and gowns. The high school pictures were taken Thursday and the grammar grades had theirs taken on Friday.

metic book with a handmade cover that belonged to her great-grandfather was contributed by Inez Mills. Some of the other old books were WEBSTEY'S READING AND ELOCUTION published in 1857, THE BOOK OF SUMON'S published in London in 1756, an old METHODIST HYMN BOOK published in 1829, a NEW TESTAMENT in German, translated by Martin Luther, and two old geography books.

Beta Club Meets
The November meeting of the Swannanoa Beta club was called to order by the president, Don Gant, on Tuesday, Nov. 11 at fifth period in Mrs. Freeman's room. Joyce Stuart, Joyce Shope, Evelyn Mayfield and Shirley Brown were absent. The members were reminded that their dues were to be paid immediately.

The president gave a report on the executive meeting of the County Beta club organization. Mrs. Mary Freeman, our sponsor, has been elected a county sponsor. Our club will have charge of the program at the January county meeting.

It was decided that the girls would wear dark skirts and white blouses, and the boys would wear dark trousers and white shirts at the installation service to be given in chapel.

The social committee appointed were Betty Creasman, chairman, Phyllis Hutchins, Jim Ward, and Barbara Vanover.

The new members were recognized and welcomed into the club. They are as follows: Mildred Clark, Jackie McMahan, Sylvia Hunt, Annie Louise Morgan, Sara Dillingham, and Betty Lou Smith.

Beta club journals were given out and the meeting was turned over to Peggy Yow, program chairman. Jo Mary McInturf gave the devotions and Ariel Young made a speech on "The Importance of an Education."

The various committees met following adjournment.

Football Review
By Orren Bell
Swannanoa High Sports Editor
The Warriors kicked the lid off by taking a 6-0 licking from the Marshall Red Tornadoes who went through the season undefeated. It is interesting to note that this was the lowest margin of victory for Marshall for the entire year.

The following week the Warriors took a thrilling, 7-6, decision from the Oakley Oaks in a hard fought defensive battle.

The next Friday afternoon the Warriors traveled to Candler where the Bobcats clawed out a 13-0 victory on a couple of blocked punts.

The next Friday the Warriors caught fire by scoring three scores in the first period and then coasting to an 18-7 win over the Ben Lippen Little Deacons.

The following Thursday night the Warriors journeyed to Marshall to tangle with the Walnut eleven. Swannanoa won going away with a 19-0 victory.

The following Friday the Swannanoa gridders came from behind to defeat the Weaverville Eagles by the sum of 13-6.

nor should we jump up and down and talk, nor run around the room. We should sharpen our pencils only when it is necessary. We should not go to the trash can nor walk around the room looking for trouble to get into, nor throw things on the floor for others to come along and pick up. We should ask for permission to speak and not speak out without permission.

Student Opinion
(This week's contribution comes from the elementary school. Floyd is a member of Mrs. Noah's 7 B-2.)

IT IS IMPORTANT TO BEHAVE IN SCHOOL
It is important to behave in school because you might disturb the teacher. We can do better work and other people can do better work also. We might have some company to come into the room, or it could be some teacher or even the principal. Then your teacher would be embarrassed, for she has the responsibility for what we may do. We should not talk or laugh when it is not necessary,

Down The Hall
Senior Class News
The Senior class is selling Christmas cards as a project to leave something to the school. Each year the seniors leave something useful as a gift to the school.

Ralph Smith from W.C.T.C. came to talk to the class about future plans and going to the college. He told about the new buildings that are going up on the campus at Cullowee and also of the different subjects that can be studied at the college. His talk and the pictures he showed us of the college were enjoyed very much.

Junior Class Very Busy
The Junior class of 1952-53 is selling Christmas cards. The money goes for the Junior-Senior banquet. Each student is responsible for selling two or more boxes of cards. We also sponsored a donkey ball game to make some money last Saturday.

ARTHRTIS!
I have been wonderfully blessed in being restored to active life after being crippled in nearly every joint of my body and with muscular soreness from head to foot. I had Rheumatoid Arthritis and other forms of Rheumatism, hands deformed and my ankles were set.

Limited space prohibits telling you more here but if you will write me I will reply at once and tell you how I received this wonderful relief.

The next Friday the Warriors pulled one of the biggest upsets of the season when they defeated the previously unbeaten Bethel powerhouse by the score of 13-7. Swannanoa then won a hard fought battle from the Sand Hill Comets and made it a perfect Homecoming to the tune of 20-6.

The Warriors then closed out their season by taking a 26-0 trouncing from the Black Mountain Darkhorses.

This gives them a record of 6 wins and 3 losses.

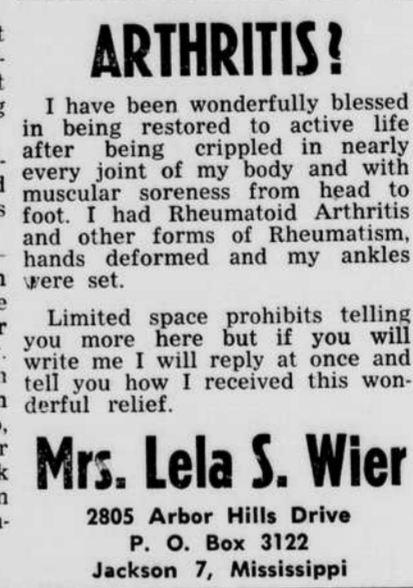

Howell Attends N. C. E. A. Meetings
Mr. Howell was called on to attend many meetings last week. On Friday, Nov. 14, he attended the Southeastern District Convention of N.C.E.A. at Fayetteville. Saturday, Nov. 15, he was in Raleigh at a state-wide meeting of chairmen of local unit legislative committees of N.C.E.A.

The Monday and Tuesday following he represented North Carolina as a delegate appointed by Governor Scott, at the Middle Atlantic States Health Conference in Roanoke, Va.

We are all glad to have Mr. Howell back with us.

Thursday, Nov. 27, 1952 — Black Mountain (NC) NEWS - 3

The juniors who went out for basketball are keeping their fingers crossed until Mr. Shaver picks the team. We wish all of them the best of luck. Some of them were on the teams last year. They did very well, and we are proud of them. The Junior class is standing behind them and hoping that the juniors are well represented on both the boys' and girls' team. The class is hoping they can sponsor some square dances this year at the Black Mountain club house.

Many juniors have dropped out or moved away. The class is sorry they had to leave. They were —Turn to Page 2
