RIDGECREST
 . . . ramblings
 Miss Bettie Allison, Atlanta, Ga., arrived Wednesday to spend Christmas with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Allison.
 Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Biddix and little son, Jerry, are in Thomasville with Mrs. Biddix's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Black during the Christmas holidays. They will return home Monday.
 Bobby Blair arrived home Tuesday morning after two years of service in the Navy. Welcome home, Bobby, you have served your country well.
 Guests of Mrs. W. W. Lawton one day last week were Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Trussell of Blowing Rock.
 Mrs. Ruby Free of Newport News, Va., is visiting her daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Paul Turner and their little sons Bobby and Jimmy.
 Ralph Greenlee is in Cincinnati, Ohio, with his brother James Greenlee.
 The Rev. and Mrs. Wesley W.
 Lawton, Charlotte, spent last Friday here visiting his mother, Mrs.
 W. W. Lawton and his sister, Miss Olive Lawton.
 Congratulations to the Paul Turner family on their television reception. They are located on a lucky spot for television reception and no doubt are enjoying to the fullest the great musical programs and rare personalities that come into their parlor over the air.
 Mr. and Mrs. James P. Morgan and little daughters, Susan and Elizabeth, Raleigh, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Perry Morgan.
 Chaplain and Mrs. Miller Jackson are spending Christmas with the Rev. and Mrs. Elbert F. Hardin.
 Mr. and Mrs. Willard K. Weeks left Monday morning for St. Petersburg, Fla., where they are visiting their parents at Christmas time.
 Mr. and Mrs. Willard K. Weeks returned Thursday last week from Nashville, Tenn., where they attended a meeting of the Ridge-crest committee and the annual meeting of the Baptist Sunday School Board.
 The Rev. and Mrs. J. J. Johnson are spending the Christmas holidays with their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Strader, Greensboro.
 Mrs. Ninal Wilson spent the week-end at her home in Candler.
 The Rev. and Mrs. Tom E. Walters and son David are spending the holidays with their son, Thomas Walters, at their cottage "Cozy Corner." Rev. Mr. Walters was for six years pastor of the Ridge-crest Baptist church. He is now the missionary to about seventy-five churches in the New South River Association with headquarters at Stedman, N. C.
 Miss Sue Perry is spending the holidays with her parents, the Rev. and Mrs. Cecil M. Perry. "It is perfectly wonderful!" she said when asked what life is like at West Hampton College in Richmond, Va., where she has been in school.
 The impressive and beautiful pageant given Sunday night at the church was attended by a large crowd. Our people really enjoyed it. Those taking part did themselves proud all the way through it. We especially enjoyed the music which was really good. A silver offering was taken for Foreign Mission work.
 The Rev. and Mrs. Cecil M. Perry and family were surprised by the congregation when given an old fashioned pounding Tuesday evening expressing their appreciation of their pastor and his family.
 There is nothing in the world like this kind of expression of grate-tude in the hearts of people at Christmas time.
 The Young People of the Sunday school enjoyed a lovely party given by William and Sue Perry in their home Monday evening. Miss Joyce Belcher, superintendent, along with the others exchanged Christmas gifts a part of the program which filled the hour of fun with high expectation on the part of all until Santa Claus had exhausted his supply. Games were led by Mrs. Bill Johnson, William Perry and Barbara Allred who kept the laughter throughout the evening.

 The party proved that young people can have fun in the right sort of way at Christmas time. Mrs.
 Charles Jolley is the teacher of this group of young people.
 Attending the meeting of the Girls' Auxiliary held at the home of Mrs. Leonard Biddix their leader Tuesday afternoon were May, Fay and Janice Peek, Barbara Denny, Ann Moore, Sandra Wright Ann Carr Perry, Barbara Bradley and Jean Tipton. Margaret Pittman, Old Post, was a visitor. The group enjoyed an exchange of gifts for Christmas along with refreshments of punch, cake and jello served by the hostess. May Peek was in charge of the program the theme of which was "What Do We See at the Manger?" Coupled with the study of the topic the young people had fellowship and pleasure in the right sort of way at Christmas time.

 her chops at the thought of digging into the delicious fruit cake, she happened to glance toward the table. There, as big as life itself, was all the fruit.
 What she had was sweet dough baked. I promised not to tell her name.

 At what business place around Black Mountain is it possible to find an authority on just about any subject? One morning last week they were discussing mash which is used in making what some call Mountain Dew. Although I couldn't pin anything on any certain person, some of the fellows present seem to speak with more than a layman's knowledge of how and why the operation works.

 A certain young bachelor around town is having a rough time. Few months back he, it is said, delighted in calling his friends who had announced their intention of hitting the orange blossom trail, "suckers." Now he has the scent and his friends aren't letting up. Which proves that when the orange blossom get after you, your jig is up and you might as well admit it.

 Merry Christmas to you and yours.
