 ways most efficient in his enforcement of the law; co-operative in every regard with the Town Board and County Officials; and at all times was most courteous in performing his duties during all the years he served as Chief of Police of Black Mountain; and
 "WHEREAS he will be sorely and sadly missed by every person of the community and especially by our Summer visitors, who the after time commended him to the Board for his courteous and kind disposition, especially in controlling the traffic in the congested areas of the town; and
 "WHEREAS his care of the school children in the morning and afternoon will always be cherished and appreciated by the parents of the children; he not only always protected them while crossing the streets, but prevented time after time serious accidents that might have occurred had it not been for his untiring efforts in their behalf.
 "NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the Mayor and Board of Aldermen of the Town of Black Mountain, in regular meeting duly assembled, that for and on behalf of every citizen and resident of Black Mountain, and from the Mayor and Board of Aldermen, individually, we express our sincere sympathy to his family in the loss of our good friend and Police Officer, Carl Smith.
 "BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this resolution be mailed to the family of Chief Smith under the Seal of the Town; that a copy of the same be inserted in the Minutes of the meeting as a permanent record and Memorial to Chief Smith; and that a copy be given to the Black Mountain News for publication."

BEE TREE NEWS

By Mrs. C. M. Howie
 John Bryant, his wife and little son, arrived Sunday morning from Michigan to spend the holidays with his mother, Mrs. Thomas G. Hall and friends.
 Mrs. John Bartlett of Black Mountain visited the Thomas G. Halls of Bee Tree Sunday afternoon. He and his wife and brother-in-law and his wife are spending the holidays with his wife's father and mother, the Herbert Stroups.
 Little Sharon Howie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Howie of Long Branch road, has been quite ill for the past week with flu.
 Lawrence and Wayne Howie have also been sick with colds.
 Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Kilby spent last Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas G. Hall. Mrs. Hall was able to attend church Sunday morning.
 The Rev. H. M. Hocutt, association missionary, rendered a very inspiring message at the Bee Tree Baptist church Sunday morning.
 We were shocked to hear of the death of Colin Bridges of the Patton Cove section of Swannanoa. He was this reporter's next door neighbor for several years when living on Bee Tree.
 Murray Howie visited the Thomas G. Halls Sunday afternoon. The Bee Tree Baptist church put on a play Sunday night at the church entitled "The Birth of Christ." It surely was a nice play. Everyone enjoyed it very much. Santa Claus was there after the play and served every one candy, oranges and apples. The children enjoyed him very much.
 Mr. and Mrs. Crabtree spent the day at Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Howies Saturday and took care of the children while Mr. and Mrs. Howie did their Christmas shopping.
 Walter Rhoads, who lived on Long Branch, moved last Friday.
 W. E. Lunsford, who went to Michigan with his son Clarence, returned home Sunday morning with his daughter and son-in-law, John Bryant.

E. J. Perry Dies At 69 Following Long Illness

Funeral services for E. J. Perry, 69, were conducted in Black Mountain Sunday at 3 p. m. by the Rev. Wilbur A. Huneycutt, pastor of the First Baptist church.
 The deceased was born in Terquimans County, N. C., and was the son of the late Dr. A. Perry. He had been living near Black Mountain for a long time, but for the last several years had been in poor health.
 He was buried in Tabernacle cemetery. Pallbearers were: M. J. Robertson, T. S. Sharp, D. F. Taylor, George Taylor, T. E. Lawson and John Runion. He is survived by one brother, E. A. Perry of this county.

VANCE AVENUE BAPTIST CHURCH PROGRAM WILL BE WEDNESDAY NIGHT

The Vance Avenue Baptist church will have its Christmas program and tree Wednesday night at 7:30 o'clock.
 Two pageants under the direction of Mrs. T. E. McCall will be given, "Christmas Harvest," and "Around the World." The children will also take part on the program. Everyone is cordially invited to attend.
