plans for the day in of Agriculture L. Y. Ballentine, issue of the News. Mrs. of Raleigh, has accepted an invitation to address the opening general session of the 17th Annual State Farm Bureau convention, the morning of February 2, at the Hotel Charlotte, in Charlotte.

Commissioner Ballentine will speak on "The Agricultural Outlook For North Carolina," which should be of interest to all farmers as they plan this year's opera-

The Convention which will be held February 1-4, is expected to attract a crowd of some 2,000 Farm Bureau members from every county in the state.

Resolutions adopted by the voting delegates during the four-day session will become Farm Bureau policy for 1953.
