MORE Swannanoa

children left Friday night for Florida where they will spend a week's vacation at Vero Beach.

Mrs. J. W. Atkins and daughter Jewel visited with Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Farr Saturday. They are mother and sister of Mrs. Farr.

Mr. and Mrs. Tarver Davidson of Durham visited with their parents over the week end. They were with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Davidson of Swannanoa Saturday for dinner and at Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Curtis of Skyland on Sunday.

Mrs. Fanny Bryant has entered Grace hospital at Morganton for surgery on Tuesday.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Burgess Hensley and children last week were Mrs. Hensley's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Johnson and her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. George Sanden from Seattle, Washington. They came by train to Detroit, bought a new car and en route here visited Washington, D. C. and many places of interest along the way. While in Detroit they visited the Plymouth plant and were amazed at the rate Plymouth cars were finished off the assembly line (one every 52 minutes). They returned home Tuesday by the southern route via Alberquerque, N. M. They were guests for dinner on Monday night of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hensley and family.

Mrs. Norman Bellenger has come home from W.N.C. Sanatorium. Her many friends and relatives rejoice in her progress and hope she continues to get better in spite of an attack of flu.
