Leaders Honor H. W. Haislips

Dr. Homer W. Haislip, public relations counsel for the Christian Assembly and Mrs. Haislip were guests at a reception in the home of Dr. and Mrs. Lee Butler of Black Mountain Sunday afternoon, March 8.

More than 50 persons gathered to greet Mr. and Mrs. Haislip who recently moved to Black Mountain from Brownfield, Texas. Guests were welcomed by Dr. and Mrs. Butler and Mrs. Mary Aleshire, assistant hostess. The home was decorated with a profusion of spring flowers and the tea table was richly appointed with an imported cloth in colored embroidery, silver candelabra and tea service centered by an arrangement of white glads.

Mrs. Howard S. Hilley, wife of the executive secretary of the assembly, presided at the table. Occasional piano music was provided by Mrs. N. L. Perkins, adding much to the pleasure of the occasion. Many ministers, chaplains and directors of the near-by assemblies, their wives and leaders of local civic groups welcomed this opportunity to honor these newest officials of the Christian Assembly.

Dr. and Mrs. Haislip expressed their deep appreciation for the friendly reception accorded them by the leaders of all churches and the business people in Black Mountain. They hope to purchase or build a permanent residence soon as they plan to assist in the development of the Christian Assembly, making this their home. Having spent previous vacations at Blue Ridge and attended sessions at Ridgecrest, they were aware of the beauty of this area and welcomed the call of the assembly to become officially connected here in this important project.
