MONTREAT

By Mrs. Mellinger Henry

With the lovely spring weather more and more people are coming to Montreat for the week end. Gaither was crowded on Sunday morning at the eleven o'clock worship service. The minister, the Rev. John R. Williams, preached on "What is Saving Faith in Christ."

For the next two Sundays the pastor will be away holding a meeting in the First Presbyterian church, Newnan, Ga. It is expected that Dr. Wade Smith, author of the "Littlelets", will preach next Sunday.

Montreat Garden club will meet in the sun parlor of the Inn Saturday, March 21 at 4 p. m. Francis Wylie, president, will be in charge of the meeting.

Among the visitors in Montreat for the week end were the Young People's Fellowship of the Myers Park and Covenant Presbyterian churches in Charlotte.

The Wednesday prayer meetings were held at 4 p. m. in the sun parlor of Assembly Inn, and at 7:15 in Gaither Chapel.

Circles of the Women of the church met on Tuesday, March 10, at 4 p. m. Circle No. 1 met in the home of Mrs. W. J. Gammon on Mississippi road. Mrs. J. V. N. Talmage led the devotional and Mrs. C. E. Dorsey had the Bible lesson. Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Gammon, to Mrs. J. Rupert McGregor, chairman, Mrs. Brinkerhoff, Mrs. Dorsey, Mrs. W. A. Ross, Mrs. J. R. Williams, Mrs. Samuel Woods, Mrs. Robert Guillen, Misses Ida and Jessie Tipton, Miss Mary Ward, Miss Edna Zickler, Mrs. Lee, Mrs. Foley, Mrs. Mayes, Mrs. Ira Holt and Mrs. Talmage.

Circle No. 2 met in the home of Miss Elizabeth Woodhouse on Kentucky road. Mrs. Nelson Bell had the devotional. Miss Woodhouse gave a review of an article on Evangelism. Mrs. Nesbit gave the Bible lesson. Mrs. Woodhouse and Miss Woodhouse served refreshments to Mrs. Wait, Mrs. Harper, Mrs. Bentley, Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Hudson, Miss Liddell, Mrs. Nesbit, Mrs. Kelley, Miss Alice Hardie, the chairman, Miss Julia Stokes, Miss Annie Webb and Mrs. Townsend.

Miss Josephine Woods, who has been the guest of Mrs. L. Nelson Bell is now visiting friends in Alabama.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold H. Coburn have returned to their home in Bredwood through Florida.

Miss Lucy Grier is recovering from flu in her home on Virginia road.

Miss Ann Rankin, who has been in Aston Park hospital with a broken hip, is improving and will be home this week.

Miss Nannie Watkins is improving after her recent illness.

The Rev. Douglas McAllister, a missionary on the Amazon in Brazil, is attending a mission conference in Philadelphia, Lancaster and Alden, Penn. Mr. and Mrs. McAllister and family are in the McAllister cottage on North Carolina terrace this winter spending their furlough. They are pioneer missionaries under the Unevangelized Fields Missions of London and Philadelphia.

Several new homes are being built in Montreat. Mr. and Mrs. Elliot of Columbia, S. C., are building a summer cottage on Chapman road. The Rev. and Mrs. Brown Mott of Pulaski, Va., are building an all-year-round home on Virginia road. They expect to retire and move to Montreat soon.

Mrs. John Foster is in Mission hospital for a check-up this week.

Miss Emma Phifer, who is ill in her home on Georgia terrace, is somewhat improved.

Dr. Billy Graham spent a few days in Montreat before going to Chattanooga, Tenn., where he is having an evangelistic campaign for the next four weeks.

A letter has come from Mrs. Ann Sharp Harrison giving a glowing account of her trip to the Holy Land. She sailed from New York on the Italian liner Andrea Doria in February. She wrote of a delightful voyage over with her party of 50 who seemed to be the only English speaking people on board. The ship landed in Naples, then they visited Rome, then on to Cairo. In Cairo she visited the Pyramids, which was interesting especially the trips inside. She was the guest of the American University and was entertained in the "Guest room" and was quite comfortable. She rode on a camel as all tourists are supposed to do. The trip up the Nile at sunset was most thrilling. She visited the Valley of Kings and found the tomb of King Tut most interesting. In Alexandria they visited many historic sites. The boat trip to Beirut was pleasant. There she saw the French liner which was recently wrecked. She expects to visit Jerusalem and other places of interest in the Bible lands before returning home. This trip is for the study of archaeology in these lands of the Old and New Testaments. Dr. Joseph Free, head of the Department of Archaeological study in Wheaton college, is the leader of the expedition.

Blake Brinkerhoff is spending his spring vacation in the home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brinkerhoff on Assembly drive. Blake has been initiated in to the Kappa Sigma fraternity in Davidson college. The Rev. and Mrs. D. M. Brown of Atlanta are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Townsend for the week end. Mr. Brown is the minister for the students in the Atlanta Presbytery. Mrs. Brown is a former teacher in Montreat School for Girls.

The Women of the Church have from time to time sent clothing to Korea. The following letter came this week from one of the missionaries to whom some clothing was sent:

"Thank you for the relief clothing sent. I wish you could see what this clothing means to the recipients. This has been a cold winter, and the clothing which has come from you and from others has been a great help in relieving suffering in our area. At the present time our greatest need is more men's suits or clothing of any variety which men can use. However, we can use and will gratefully receive any clothing that is sent. Ladies' high heel shoes is the only exception. The local boy scouts, who have almost nothing in the way of clothing or equipment, can use any scout clothing, especially hats and caps. Please continue to remember us in your prayers.

Sympathy is extended to the family of William B. Jones who died in a nursing home after a long illness. He was a native of Madison county, Ky. He owned a home on Mississippi road, "Kentucky Cardinal", where he has lived since 1949 with his sister, Mrs. W. R. Potter. The funeral service was held on Saturday afternoon in the chapel of Dunn and Groce Funeral home, West Asheville. The burial was in Richmond, Ky., on Monday. Honorary pallbearers were George Whitaker, Francis Wylie, the Rev. W. J. Gammon, Dr. Thomas Spence, William Griffin and the Rev. O. F. Yates. Jones was manager of the Lee hotel in Bishoptown, S. C., when he became ill last summer. His sister, Mrs. Potter, is now living with her son, Dr. Richard Potter in Ridgeville, Ind. Others surviving are the Rev. Robert Potter, pastor of the Presbyterian church in Arden, Mrs. Thompson Reid of Tablequah, Okla., Mrs. L. W. McClanahan of Dallas, Texas. All his nieces and nephews were devoted to "Uncle Will." He was a good neighbor and friend.

THERE'S MAGIC IN PINEAPPLE

A recent nation-wide survey shows that canned pineapple is found on pantry shelves more frequently than any other fruit. One reason for this remarkable popularity, of course, is that almost everyone likes the flavor of

CP & L's Contest Pits 108 Towns

A total of 108 towns have entered Carolina Power & Light company's $9,550 contest for "helping to build a finer Carolina." It was announced today by E. N. Pope, advertising manager and contest director.

Ninety-one Tar Heel towns and 17 in South Carolina are competing. Forty-four are towns of 1,000 population or less; 36 are competing in the 1,001-2,500 population group; and 28 have over 2,500 people.

Winners in each of the three groups will receive prizes of $1,000 for first place, $500 for second and $250 for third. Fifteen prizes of $100 each will be awarded for "honorable mention."

Winners of last year's contest were just announced: Hartsville, S. C., $2000; Sanford, $1,750; Wallace, $1000; Grifton, $1000; Latta, S. C., $750; Ellerbe, $750; and $100 each to Henderson, Jacksonville, Asheboro, Dunn, Mount Olive, Pittsboro, Wendell, Spring Hope, Swannanoa, Fuquay-Varina, Pine Bluff, Bladenboro and Maysville, N. C., and Lamar and Pine-wood, S. C.

Black Mountain and Swannanoa are entered in the population groups 1,001 to 2,500. They will compete with towns of comparable size in North and South Carolina.

Veterans in the North Carolina-Virginia-West Virginia area stand to lose nearly $900,000,000 in lapsed GI term life insurance during 1953, unless they reinstate and renew those policies before the expiration date of their policies.

In making this announcement, based on a sampling of Philadelphia district office records, Veterans Administration said the policies involved are lapsed term National Service Life Insurance (NSLI) that were issued to two groups of World War II and post-World War II veterans in this area.

The first group were 100,000 World War II veterans who took out NSLI policies while they were in service during the year 1945. The second group were 10,000 World War II and post-World War II veterans who took out term policies while they were in service during 1948. The first group had policies with 8-year terms to run, and the second group's policies had terms of 5 years, both of them expiring during the year 1953.

In the state of North Carolina, the VA figures indicate that approximately 64,000 veterans of both groups will lose about $512,000,000 of insurance coverage if not reinstated this year. In Virginia, approximately 24,500 veterans are affected and stand to lose about $195,000,000. About 21,500 West Virginia veterans are affected, with insurance coverage totaling approximately $172,000,000.

If veterans in both groups do not wish to lose altogether the insurance coverage under these policies, they must reinstate them before the policies expire, VA said. Otherwise, under present laws, they will not be eligible for further GI life insurance.

Policies may be reinstated by applying to a Veterans Administration office. If the policy has been lapsed for three months, the veteran must pass a physical examination. The payment of two monthly premiums is also required.

pineapple. Pineapple plays a star role in menu planning because of its versatility, its rich golden color and its unique texture, which provides such desirable contrast with softer textured foods, as well as with the more firm and crunchy ones. It can be served alone for breakfast, lunch or dinner, or blended with other foods and used in salads or desserts. Combined with meat or fish in main dish foods, the light, delicate pineapple flavor will dress up simple foods and lend variety to daily meals.

Pineapple lends a luscious, fruity flavor and excellent texture contrast to this meat loaf, made like an upside-down cake.

Pineapple Hamburger Loaf
3 slices bread, cut in small cubes
1 cup milk
1 egg
1 small onion, chopped
1 tsp. salt
1/4 tsp. pepper
1 tsp. Worcestershire Sauce
1 lb. ground beef
3 slices canned pineapple

Place bread cubes in mixing bowl, add milk and allow to stand two or three minutes. Add egg, chopped onion and seasonings, and mix well. Add meat and blend thoroughly. Cut pineapple slices in half crosswise and arrange in a row in the bottom of a loaf pan. Pile meat mixture on top of pineapple. Bake at 375 degrees for one hour. Invert on serving platter. (Makes 6 servings.)

Here is a main-dish salad of pineapple chunks and rosy shrimp—colorful, flavorful, and hearty enough to serve for either luncheon or dinner. It's fine, too, for last-minute meals.

Pineapple Shrimp Salad
2 cups cooked or canned shrimp
1/2 cup French dressing
1 cup sliced celery
1 cup pineapple tidbits or chunks

Marinate shrimp in French dressing for half an hour. Drain off dressing and combine shrimp with celery and pineapple. Arrange on crisp lettuce and pass additional French dressing. (Makes 6 servings.)

FRIDAY THE THIRTEENTH HOLDS NO TERROR FOR THE HOOKER SISTERS

Friday the thirteenth has no terror for the Hooker Sisters, Misses Mary and Susan.

It was Friday, March 13, and most people tried to be extra careful that day as to what they did and where they went. They took no unnecessary chances, looked both ways when crossing the streets, and were sure that their shoes weren't crossed during the day.

But in the face of all this the Misses Mary and Susan selected this Friday, the dreaded thirteenth, as the day for an "unlucky" bridge party.

Arriving early, or so she thought, Mrs. H. A. Kerlee found that the only way to get into the house was by going under a ladder. At first she refused but took a deep breath and leaped across the doorway when she found all other doors locked.

Many of the other guests were just as cautious but each decided

TO TAKE A CHANCE RATHER THAN REMAIN OUT IN THE COLD

But the effort to tempt lady luck didn't end with Friday the thirteenth and the ladder standing "forgotten" over the doorway.

At the head table was a calendar with Friday, March 13, encircled. At the second table the centerpiece was a black cat, and at the third table a broken mirror. Prizes were wrapped with black ribbon and decorated with black cat stickers. Black cats were used as table cards. There were 13 at the tables for refreshments.

But the ladder brought good luck to Mrs. Kerlee. She won an attractive prize for low score.

Other "lucky" winners were: Mrs. A. C. Leonard, high, Mrs. C. C. Godfrey and Mrs. Gordon Greenwood, bingo.

Others present included Mrs. Rhoda Riddle, Mrs. W. A. Allison, Mrs. A. J. Hemphill, Mrs. Stanley Garland, Mrs. Harry Barkley, Mrs.

CREeping MICE GIVEN AS BIRTHDAY FAVORS

Stephen Earley, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Earley, celebrated his fifth birthday Saturday, March 13, with a party at his home on North Park road. A color scheme of green and pink was carried out in decorations and refreshments. Each child received a creeping mouse as a favor.

Guests included: Miss Evelyn Canble and Mary Loue Eddy, Mrs. Ben Jarrett, Janie and Ben Kincaid, all of Asheville, Mrs. Ned Kincaid and Miss Kincaid, all of Asheville, Mrs. Frank Watkins, Ronnie and Carol, Mrs. Tommy Edwards, Tom and Cindy, Teresa Tatham, and Jane Goodson.

Wilmington in Bloom At this season of the year Wilmington is in bloom—literally. North Carolina's port city on the Cape Fear has become nationally famous for its azaleas. Its festival there each spring attracts hundreds of thousands of visitors from far and near. The festival begins this year on March 26 and reaches its climax with a parade of floats and the crowning of the Azalea Queen on the twenty-eighth. Plan now to see Wilmington at its beautiful best.
