Church Sends 34 To Pres. Rally In Waynesville

Thirty-four Black Mountain young people of the Presbyterian Youth Fellowship and "Pioneers" attended spring rallies on Easter Monday in Waynesville.

The Presbyterian church at Waynesville was host to 250 Fellowship members of the Asheville Presbytery, while the Hazelwood church was the center of activities for Pioneers, ages 12, 13, and 14.

Other adults besides the pastor attending from the Black Mountain church were: Mrs. C. C. Myers, Mrs. J. H. Riddle, and Mrs. H. D. Crawford, adult advisers; H. E. Barkley and Mrs. Frank Wade, who drove their cars.

The Rev. W. W. Preston of Black Mountain presided at the evening session in Waynesville and introduced the inspirational speaker, Chaplain James H. Skelton, from W. N. C. sanatorium, whose topic was "Christ, Missions, and You."

Speaker before the Pioneer group in Hazelwood was the Rev. Paul Warren, pastor of the new Grace Covenant Presbyterian church in Asheville.

Afternoon study sessions, recreation, business meetings, and a supper of picnic food taken along rounded out the day's program.

BY TREE NEWS

Well this was a beautiful week-end; every one around here had a wonderful Easter day.

We had two wonderful messages on the risen Lord at the Bee Tree Baptist church. The Rev. Cassidy of Burnsville, brought the message in the morning, and the pastor, the Rev. Cameron, brought the evening message. He is much improved with his throat.

Although it has been quite cool it's not too cool for snakes to be coming out. This reporter and little dog, Tommie, killed a large adder snake in the yard last Thursday.

We the C. M. Howies took dinner with the Thomas G. Halls Sunday and then we all visited Lawrence Howie at the W.N.C. sanatorium.

Loyn Howie's family and Charles Bryant's family and Joyce and Judy Brooks, all went to Sumner Haven and enjoyed an Easter egg hunt Sunday afternoon. Loyn and his wife and Lawrence's wife also visited Lawrence Howie in the late afternoon.

Mr. Jim Adams of Bee Tree road and Mrs. Rita Bank of Swannanoa were married in a quiet ceremony at the Rev. Jeffrey's at Black Mountain Saturday morning and went on a short motor trip to Tennessee.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Bowen of Bee Tree road and Mr. and Mrs. Lester Kilby and children visited Mrs. Bowen's daughter, Mrs. Tommie Wilson, Sunday afternoon.

Mr. J. P. Gragg of the Black Mountain highway suffered a heart attack last week and has been in an Asheville hospital. He is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Kilby visited the Thomas G. Halls Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewie Kilby and little son of Black Mountain visited Mr. and Mrs. Granville Kilby of Bee Tree road Sunday afternoon. They also visited Mr. Lewie's father and mother in the late afternoon Sunday.

The W. E. Duckett's families celebrated Easter Sunday with a get-together family reunion dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Duckett on the Bee Tree road.

Mrs. Stokley Brooks of Bee Tree road and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Brooks of Black Mountain highway visited Mrs. Stokley Brooks' father in McDowell Sunday afternoon.

RED CROSS READY TO AID IN P.W. REPATRIATION

The American Red Cross has offered its full resources of personnel and supplies to assist in repatriation of sick and wounded prisoners of war in Korea when the exchange of prisoners proposed March 27 by the communists is effected.

In the spring of 1952 the Red Cross completed training of a special team of workers to assist in repatriation. Some of these are now stationed in Japan and Korea. Others in the United States are prepared to leave for Korea immediately.

You may help in this humanitarian work through your Black Mountain-Swannanoa Red Cross chapter.

RONNIE WATKINS 7TH

Last Saturday afternoon a group of small friends and their mothers were invited to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Watkins to help Ronnie celebrate his seventh birthday. The afternoon was spent attending the movie, followed by an egg hunt at the home.

The birthday cake was white with a pink "seven" stenciled on top. The individual cup cakes carried the same design. Ice cream and candy Easter eggs were also

I wish to thank each and every one for the flowers, cards and remembrances sent to me during my stay in the hospital. It gives me great pleasure to open the cards and read the messages. Although I am flat on my back, I expect to be home Friday.

Love to all,
Florence Melton.
