10 — Black Mtn. (NC) NEWS — Thursday, May 21, 1953

RIDGECREST . . . ramblings land, Fla., arrived Thursday for the summer. Mr. Craven is busy preparing his garden for seed planting. He is an orchard and garden expert. July will find him with plenty of greens and later there will be potatoes and other vegetables. Welcome to Ridgecrest again, Mr. and Mrs. Craven. The Woman's Christian Temperance Union met on Thursday afternoon with Mrs. W. L. Hatcher. Mrs. J. R. Hare, state president, Asheville, was the speaker for the occasion bringing to the group most recent happenings in the state in temperance work. Ridgecrest girlhood was never more lovely than on last Sunday night when a coronation and recognition service was held in the church for members of the Dorothy Lawson Junior and Marion Cowherd Intermediate Girls' auxiliaries of Woman's Missionary Union. Six candabras and quantities of white flowers and greenery made a beautiful setting for the program. The candidates for the various ranks came to the platform in groups. After being examined by Mrs. Elbert Hardin, they were presented their various awards by Mrs. Charles Jolley, president of W. M. U. Music was furnished by Mrs. R. L. May at the organ. The following received recognition and awards:

Maidens: Mae Peck, Faye Peck, Janice Peck, Barbara Jean Bradley, Barbara Denny.

Ladies-in-Waiting: Emily Hollifield, Ann Carr Perry, Martha Bradley, Evelyn Peck.

Princess: Doris Snypes.

Queens: Margie Teague and Lynn Morgan.

Little flower girls in the queens' procession were Martha Allison and Ann Moore. Crown bearers were Deanna Belcher and Sandra Wright.

The white-crowns knelt to have silver crowns with star emblem placed upon their heads. As the congregation sang "All Hail The Power of Jesus' Name," the newly crowned queens lifted their crowns in reverence to the "Lord Of All."

Following the coronation these same girls gave a beautiful dramatization of the G. A. hymn, "We've A Story To Tell To The Nations." Margaret and Shirley Denny were the readers for this part of the program.

Candlelight, white-robed girls, others dressed to represent different nations, all kneeling with outstretched arms toward a lighted cross, formed an impressive tableau brought to a close by the pastor's earnest benediction.

Messrs. Bob and Billy Bradley and Rev. and Mrs. E. F. Hardin accompanied 10 girls of G. A. to the associational G. A. rally at Enka church last Friday night. Those attending were: Martha and Barbara Jean Bradley, Barbara Denny, Evelyn, Mae and Faye Peck, Emily Hollifield, Doris Snypes, Margie Teague, and Anne Carr Perry.

A happy surprise greeted the Hardins as they drove in to Hills of Home after taking G. A.'s to Enka. Beautiful music came from the shadows of the porch. When lights were turned on the singers were revealed as a youth choir from First Baptist church, Asheville, S. C., led by their director, Mrs. Madeline Gillespie. All these were spending the week-end with Mrs. Gillespie's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Sutherland at Ridgecrest. The group walked out to serenade Mr. Hardin who had recently held a meeting in the Asheville church.

Public Library Summer Hours

For the summer months beginning the first of June, the public library will be open from 10 a. m. to 6 p. m. on Tuesdays and Thursdays, and from 2 to 6 p. m. Saturdays. It will be closed on the other days.

Miss Ruby Hall, librarian, said that the library "board" wanted to accommodate summer residents too in deciding the new hours, and many of them can get to town only in the morning. That was the reason for the decision to have the library open for two full days a week.

LUCY WRIGHT CIRCLE HAS VARIED PROGRAM

Mrs. J. L. Potter and Mrs. J. J. Johnson were hostesses to the Lucy Wright circle of the First Baptist church on Tuesday, May 12, at the home of Mrs. Potter, Briarbrook road. The meeting was presided over by the chairman, Mrs. W. H. Tipton.

The secretary read a note from Mrs. A. F. Tyson, Jr., thanking the circle for the donation each month to the school lunch fund.

The program opened with the devotional study by Mrs. Potter. A very interesting article entitled "A Man of Faith — President Dwight D. Eisenhower," was read by Mrs. W. E. Vernon. This article appeared in the May issue of "Christian Herald." Mrs. J. I. Cook discussed "Missionaries Are Human." Mrs. Johnson gave the closing number, "Southern Baptists In South America."

During the social hour the hostesses served delicious refreshments to Mrs. Tipton, Mrs. Pauline Arnold, Mrs. Phil Glenn, Mrs. C. W. Shumate, Mrs. Claude Gilbert, Mrs. W. T. Miller, Mrs. Marshall Mott, Mrs. Cook, Mrs. L. R. Thomas, Mrs. D. C. Hamby, Sr., and Mrs. Vernon.

CARVER SCHOOL NEWS

The 6th and 7th grades of Carver elementary school held their commencement play Friday night, May 15 in the school auditorium. It was well attended and was enjoyed by all.

The class day exercise will be held Sunday, May 31. All parents are cordially invited to attend.

The Girls' council of Carver school, under the direction of Mrs. R. B. Pinkston, held their annual picnic at the Warren Wilson college. Dr. Deal of the college toured the grounds with the group. It was very interesting and the girls enjoyed it very much. A member of the faculty and one student had lunch on the grounds with the group.

Mrs. Pinkston had as her guest Mrs. R. N. Russell, 3rd and 4th grade teacher of Carver school; Mrs. James Kennedy, a member of the P. T. A., and Mr. L. D. Dougherty of Swannanoa. The trip was enjoyed by all.

MT. ALLEN LODGE ELECTS OFFICERS

Prince Hall F. A. M. Masons of Mt. Allen Lodge No. 708, Black Mountain, elected the following officers for the year of 1953:

Marvin W. Hamilton, worshipful master; James Carson, senior warden; E. Rutherford, jr. warden; John H. Briscoe, treasurer; Rev. M. M. Hooper, secretary.

Installation of these officers will be at 8 p. m. June 2 at Mt. Allen Lodge. Following the installation there will be a banquet given by the Masons and Eastern Star chapter No. 501.

On May 19, 1st degree will be conferred on new brothers.
