

supply of feed concentrates will be 6 per cent higher than those of 1950-51.

Estimated milk production in North Carolina totaled 157,000,000 this year up over last year, most of the increase is going into butter, record high for the month and powdered milk and cheese, produced 2,000,000 pounds short of the all-time high for any month. ment for price support.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Lanove and daughter, Kay, Madison, Conn., Mrs. Imogene Akers and children, Harvie Lee and Jessie Lee, Portsmouth, Va., Mrs. Johnny Stepp and children Bobby and Billy, Raleigh and Mr. Ralph Stepp, Mobile, Ala. On Sunday they all went to the Recreation park for a picnic dinner and a day of "catching up on the family news." Late in the afternoon they enjoyed a feast of ripe, red, rich watermelon on the lawn. For several days this week the father, mother and children and grand children have enjoyed the close ties of family fellowship.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Thomas spent Sunday at Brookside Baptist church attending Memorial Day services. A basket dinner was enjoyed by the large congregation.

Ridgecrest will send another lad to school this month as Master Donald Clifton Gray observed his sixth birthday anniversary on Aug. 6. Congratulations and best of wishes, young man, as you enter upon a quest for knowledge.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Watson, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Watson, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bridges and Ray Johnson spent Saturday night, Aug. 9, at Bryson City and on Sunday visited Gatlinburg and Cherokee. They saw many interesting things besides the scenery including four black bears.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Morgan and Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Pate Sunday afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. G. Hobart Lee, Asheville, Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Lee and daughter, Rebecca and Mrs. Mordecai Lee of Richmond, Va.

The Rev. and Mrs. Paul Forsythe and children, Dora Lee and David, Richmond, Va., were guests at our church Sunday. Mr. Forsythe was pastor of the Ridgecrest church from 1935 to 1939.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Dean Willis and children arrived from Dallas, Tex., last Friday for a visit with their parents, the Rev. and Mrs. Tom E. Walters and Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Willis. Mr. Willis is business manager for the great First Baptist church, Dallas.

Attendance at Sunday school at the church was 185 last Sunday. At Camp Ridgecrest it was 127. At the Assembly there were 1,209 present.

The Vacation Bible school ended Saturday with a picnic at Catawba Falls. A dozen members of the Ridgecrest Assembly staff assisted pastor Cecil M. Perry in the work. The commencement exercises were well attended when recognition was given to those earning awards for attendance and achievement during the school. The enrollment was forty-two and the average attendance was thirty-seven.

Camp Ridgecrest For Boys ended its best season in twenty-five years of operation Wednesday evening when the boys and their counselors entertained their parents and some friends at a banquet supper held in the camp gymnasium. About four hundred were present for the feast and fun. The enrollment for the summer reached 267 campers from several states. The last few days were a complete round of games, contests, tournaments and socials. The boys seemed happier this year than ever before with their program and achievements. They departed Thursday amid cheers for their director, George Pickering, and their counselors and co-workers including "Mom Hough" and their "Nurse" Miss Jean Tipler who looked after their health and happiness this summer. We hope all of them will return to us next summer.

A good old fashioned reunion was enjoyed by the L. H. Stepp family at their residence on Black Mountain highway with a bounteous dinner at five o'clock in the evening with all members of the family present. From Long Beach, Calif., came their son L. H. Stepp, Jr., and a couple of his friends, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Cuthrell at "Chatterbox."

by

Many times in the last few years we have thrilled to the lovely music of Mr. L. A. Oates. It is again that we have to grieve the passing of a cherished friend. We offer deepest sympathy to everyone that was fortunate enough to know him.

We had a wedding on North Fork a short time ago. After a whirlwind courtship, Marion Baldwin married Miss Katherine McDowell. This column wishes the young couple every happiness and success.

Our W. M. U. met at the home of Mrs. Mae Burnette of the Toll road last Tuesday, and had an unusually delightful meeting. Those partaking in this pleasant assemblage were: Mrs. Claude McAfee, Mrs. Oden Walker, Mrs. Earl Jolly, Mrs. W. T. Shook, Mrs. David Shook, Mrs. A. W. Cavin, Mrs. Glenn Briggman, Mrs. Eugene Byrd, and Mrs. Clyde Gray. After a most successful meeting, Mrs. Burnette served the ladies tasty refreshments. I had the rare good luck to get in on these, as I was working next door on Nell McAfee's house. Mae brought me out a generous helping of ice cream and cake.

Little Mary Morris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Morris, is in an Asheville hospital seriously ill. This column wishes her a speedy recovery. We miss this bright girl very much in the valley.

Our granddaughter, Cindy Edwards, says that there is a "bug-house" near her home. Cindy has found a large hornet's nest.

Speaking of hornet's nests, have any of you been up to Blue Ridge
