

A CREED IN A GARDEN

I believe in the God of my garden, the God of the trees,
The god with the feet of the fairy who treads on the breeze
And makes of the rose-leaves a carpet. The God of the light,
The God of the dusk and the sunset; the God of the night
Who freshens the scents in my garden with breaths of the earth,
And juggles and frets with tulip and brings it to birth.
I believe in the God of the thorn bush, the God of the bird
Who fashions a song from an egg shell; of the new world stirred
By the sudden comfort of April; the God of all grief
In the whimpering pain and death of the leaf.
I believe in the God of the sky-paths, whose cumbersome cloud
Shakes warm, laughing rain o'er my garden and whispers aloud
To the slumbering ant and the earth worm to the uttermost weed
His challenge of Life and achievement.—This is my Creed.
Newman Flower, contemporary English.

CHURCH TRIUMPHANT

O Church of God triumphant, above the world's dark fears;
In thee our souls find refuge through all these earthly years,
Christ's steadfast holy purpose, illumined by the cross,
When hosts encamp against us, reveals their might but dross.

Her bells on Christmas morning have set our hearts aglow,
At Easter-time her carols with faith still over-flow;
Within her sacred portals our children learn God's truth,
While at her hallowed altars to Christ we pledge our youth.

Through manhood's sterner challenge, in womanhood's brave years,
The Church of Christ continues in gladness or in tears,
To guide our footsteps onward till sunset's lingering rays
Reveal God's Heavenly Country beyond our earthly days.

O Church of God triumphant, we pledge anew in prayer,
Our youth, our fuller manhood, for Christ's great cause to dare;
Till his redeeming purpose shall prove beyond defeat,
When gather all God's children around His mercy seat.

RIDGECREST
... ramblings

The following message from Mr. Perry Morgan to Mrs. Pate, his sister, Rex Hospital, Raleigh, N. C. I am propped up in bed but feeling fine in comparison to how I have felt most of the last fifteen days, my nurse is watching over me, it is 1:40 a. m. and I am as hungry as a bear, how I wish it were breakfast time right now. No temperature now for three days, but the Dr. says I will have to stay in bed at least a week after the fever is gone. I hope to leave the hospital on Monday the 30th or soon thereafter. My vacation ruined up to now. Here's my church envelope, please put it in for me Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. McGill of Columbia, S. C., Cecil McGill, a student at the University of S. C., and Miss Miriam Horton a graduate student at A. P. L. Auburn, Ala., visited Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Pate and Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Weeks Thanksgiving afternoon.

Miss Betty Allison from the Home Mission Board, Atlanta, Ga., spent the Thanksgiving holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Allison.

The many friends of Bob Snypes will be interested to know of his marriage to Miss Beatrice Fox of Marion, a very simple but beautiful wedding took place Saturday Nov. 21 in the home of the Rev. R. L. Cooper, pastor of the First Baptist church of Nebo, N. C.

Mr. John May, student at Western North Carolina college, Cullowhee, spent Thanksgiving holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. May.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard K. Weeks spent the week-end in Atlanta, Ga. They attended the football game between Georgia-Teach and the University of Georgia.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Burnett returned Sunday from Beaufort, S. C. They spent the Thanksgiving holidays with his son, Tom Burnett and family.

Mr. Eugene Moore entered the Veterans hospital at Swannanoa and is expected to be there for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Hobert Lee of Beverly Hills, Asheville, were the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Pate on Thanksgiving day.

Mr. Clarence Allison and Paul spent Sunday in Old Fort with Mr. Allison's mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Hight C Moore and Mrs. Norma Moore had as their guests for Thanksgiving dinner Mrs. Luther Thomas of Black Mountain and Goldsboro and Rev. W. R. Reeves, Jr., professor of Warren Wilson college.

Miss Mary Buschel of Hickory spent the day Sunday at her cottage on Meeks road and attended services at the Ridgecrest Baptist church.

Mrs. Hensley Snypes returned home from St. Joseph's hospital Sunday after staying several days for treatment.

Mrs. E. T. Fleetwood and two sons, Stephen and Stewart, are confined at their home on the Black Mountain highway with the virus infection.

Mrs. E. F. Hardin and Mrs. Miller Jackson are spending several days with Dr. and Mrs. R. L. Holt in Mars Hill. Mrs. Holt is the daughter of Mrs. Hardin and sister of Mrs. Jackson.

The deacons of the Ridgecrest Baptist church elected their officers for the new year and they are as follows: Chairman, W. L. Snypes; vice chairman, Paul Turner; and secretary, W. M. Pate.

Miss Beatrice Bolton of the Willis apartments is spending the Thanksgiving holidays with her mother in Knoxville, Tenn.

Margaret Greenlee spent the Thanksgiving holidays with her father, Mr. J. H. Greenlee. Margaret is a student at the A. & T. college in Greensboro.

Dr. Hight C Moore preached the morning service at the Kerlee Hights Baptist church and our pastor, Rev. Cecil M. Perry the night service.

BE SURE TO USE THE RETURN ENVELOPE WHICH VA SENDS YOU FOR EACH GI INSURANCE PREMIUM. THE INFORMATION PRINTED ON IT HELPS VA TO KEEP YOUR ACCOUNT STRAIGHT.

Veterans attending school or college under the Korean GI Bill were reminded by the Veterans Administration that the amount of money they may earn outside of school hours has no effect whatsoever on the GI allowances paid them by the Government.

The monthly allowances will remain the same, regardless of outside earnings, VA said. In fact, these earnings need not even be reported to the VA.

The only "ceiling" under the Korean GI Bill applies to veterans taking on-the-job or apprentice training. But even this "ceiling" of $310 a month imposes no limit whatsoever upon how much a veteran may earn.

Instead it works this way: when the veteran's earnings as a trainee, plus his monthly GI allowance, exceed $310 a month, VA scales down and daughter Carol of Reidsville, visited Mrs. Pearson's father, Eugene Moore, who is a patient at a Swannanoa hospital, and Mrs. Moore and family here this week-end.

Mrs. Cordia King, Brevard, spent several days during Thanksgiving with her brother and sister-in-law, Rev. and Mrs. Charles Jolley.

Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Meeks returned last week from a two weeks visit with friends in Columbia and Florence, S. C.

Mrs. S. B. Moore continues critically ill in Memorial hospital, Roanoke, Va.

The covered dish supper at the Ridgecrest Baptist church last Wednesday night was a very delightful occasion. The attendance was good, fellowship and fun excellent, food delicious, (Mrs. Thomas and W. M. Pate will agree to that—or either Hensley Snypes was fooling). After all had finished, table cleared, dishes washed, those who could stay gathered in the church auditorium with our pastor, Mr. Perry, leading to give thanks to our Heavenly Father for the many blessings He has given us in the past year.

ADD RIDGECREST
He has achieved success who has lived well, loved much, gained respect of men, never lacked appreciation, or failed to express it, who has looked for the best in others and given the best he has. This is the manager of the Ridgecrest Baptist Assembly, Mr. Willard K. Weeks, for twice each week prior to the Billy Graham revival as the men would gather for lunch he met with them for a thirty minute devotion, to read from God's word and lead in prayer as others would follow, needless to say the result these meetings have helped each one to feel his task more keenly and responsibility of trying to do his best work, as some have felt they have been brought more closely to the Master these meetings will be held once each week.

BUCKEYE AND JIMS BRANCH
Mrs. Clyde Pickens.
(Thursday, Nov. 26)

The Buckeye Baptist church has returned to their usual schedule upon the closure of the Billy Graham Crusade. On Wednesday evening they will meet at the regular prayer meeting hour and everyone is invited to attend this Thanksgiving service.

Mrs. Ruth McClure and children, Larry and Janet, have moved from Buckeye to Asheville. Everyone misses them very much but wishes them well in their new home.

Jim Pruitt is home on leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harland Pruitt, from the Navy.

Mrs. Homer Dehart had her family, the Hodges, as Sunday dinner guests on Nov. 22.

The Hall family gave a birthday dinner honoring their father on his 80th birthday on Sunday, Nov. 22, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis C. Hall. Mr. Hall is quite spry for his age and danced a jig for his children and grandchildren to prove it. Those present were Mr. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dalton, Helen, Francis, Leon, and Joyce; Mr. and Mrs. Millard Hall, Mrs. Selma Hall, Carl, Charles, Daniel and Betty, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Hall and Annette, Mr. and Mrs. Jim McFee, Wilda Jimmie, and David, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest King, Hubert, Evelyn, Doris, Reva, Clyde, William, Wayne, Eva Mae and Hurdly, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ray, Eugene, Tom, Howard, Margaret, Lorane, Dennis and Linda, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Hall, Curtis, Jr., Ted, Elizabeth and David, Douglas Hall, Jimmy Gibbs, and Junior Gowan.

B.F. Goodrich Tubeless Tire
can be your LIFE-SAVER when these happen:

Drive over spikes—no loss of air
When the BFG LIFE-SAVER is punctured—you drive on as if nothing happened. Patented sealing compound inside seals around the spike, keeps air in. Later, when spike is removed, it plugs the hole, making a permanent repair.

Damaging Impact—no blowout
Instead of a blowout—In regular tire, impact causes a bruise-break which pinches down with a bang! But the BFG LIFE-SAVER has no tube to blow out. When bruise-damaged, its inner liner develops tiny leaks. You lose air—slowly. Have time for a safe stop!

Slippery road—you stop quickly
The BFG LIFE-SAVER tread has thousands of tiny, flexible grip-blocks. They act like gripping fingers on slippery roads. Stop you as much as 30% quicker in rain. In tests, BFG LIFE-SAVERS outstopped, outstarted, outpulled regular tires.

And BFG LIFE-SAVER protection costs little!

Ford, Chevrolet, Plymouth	6.75-15 plus tax	$30.95 each
Mercury, Dodge, Pontiac, Studebaker	7.10-15 plus tax	$34.45 each
Oldsmobile, Buick, De Soto, Hudson	7.60-15 plus tax	$37.95 each

And it costs less than any regular tire and blowout-protecting tube. Fits your present rims. As low as $1.00 down and your old tire puts one on today.

the allowance accordingly, to being the total within the $310 limit.
The $310-a-month ceiling applies to all on-the-job trainees, regardless of the rate of GI allowance they are receiving. The beginning allowance rate for a veteran with no dependents is $70 a month; with one dependent, it is $85, and with more than one dependent, the rate is $105. Under the law, the rate is reduced at four-month intervals, as training progresses and as their earning ability increases.

Q—I am a Korean veteran. Would it be possible for me to enroll as an apprentice in a foreign country under the Korean GI Bill? I want to learn the watchmaking trade in Switzerland.
A—No. Training in foreign countries, under the Korean GI Bill, is limited only to VA-approved courses in accredited colleges and universities in the United States.
Q—May I take on-the-job training under the Korean GI Bill in a plant that was approved by my State for World War II veterans?
A—World War II GI Bill approval is not enough. The training course must be State-approved under the Korean GI Bill, before you may enroll, under the law.
