

A New Kind Of Highballing!

fifty years ago, when the eight brothers made man's successful airplane flight, was strictly for the birds highballing was strictly a road term. Recently a dis-mixed metaphors and set industry precedent with the complete plane-load of its ever flown commercially. marked the climax of an op-ion that was telescoped into a days to alleviate the shortage created by the record demand for Old Grand-Dad in its handsome new decanters. Ordinarily a month would have been required to assemble the cargo; to ship cork from Portugal, glass stoppers from Chicago; anneal the two in New Jersey; print the cartons in Baltimore; and bottle and box the decanters at the distillery in Frankfort, Ky. The weather almost upset the military timing.

given to a sick, helpless invalid. He had been unable to walk for many years. It was absurd to expect him to carry a bed. The positive command caused the man to snap to attention. There was nothing mysterious about this healing —no "hokus-pokus" of a charlatan; no grandstand play for publicity; no wild, weird emotionalism. The man was healed at once. He jumped to his feet and walked away carrying his bed.

The Jews Objected to Such Conduct on the Sabbath. They had ignored the sick, helpless man for thirty-eight years but as he walks down the street with a bed on his back they stop him. He was doing something unlawful. They were more interested in keeping the laws and traditions of men than in healing sick people. They were indignant and upbraided the man.

A Good Answer. The healed man answered with words of wisdom and authority. "He that made me whole, the same said unto me, 'Take up thy bed and walk.'" That was all the authority he needed. But those men with legalistic minds and a yen for outward appearances were not satisfied. They insisted on finding the man responsible for breaking the Sabbath and encouraging others to disregard this sacred custom.

Jesus Had Disappeared and could not be found. The man who had been healed did not know his benefactor. How human—walking for the first time in thirty-eight years and did not know the man who was responsible for such blessings. He belonged to the millions who are thoughtless and ungrateful. All the wonderful blessings of life come from the bountiful hands of a merciful God. Far too often we enjoy the gifts and forget the Giver.

Christ Found the Man in the Temple and told him to sin no more lest something worse should befall him. He had been healed for righteous living and grateful service. His only hope for righteous living was through active service for the Lord. It has always been easy for idle men and women to drift into sin.

When the Jews Discovered that Jesus had healed on the Sabbath they persecuted Him. Christ explained "My Father worketh hitherto and I work." Then they sought to kill Him for He had blasphemed against God—attempted to make Himself equal with God.

Our Lesson has been selected for a temperance emphasis. The Lord expects us to be sober and temperate in all things. The alcoholic is intemperate and is sick in body and sinful in soul. The Great Physician is his only hope. The church should help lead sick and sinful alcoholics into the loving presence of the Master who can heal and redeem.

Something To Think About:

1. Why is drunkenness both sin and sickness?
2. What is the relation of temperance to health?
3. What is the attitude of a good football coach toward alcohol?

That the inexhaustible resources of divine Love are available today to bless those who understand the unlimited good that God has provided for man will be brought out at Christian Science services Sunday.

The Lesson-Sermon entitled "Love" includes the following verses from the Bible:

"Consider the lilies how they grow: they toil not, they spin not; and yet I say unto you, that Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. If then God so clothe the grass, which is today in the field, and tomorrow is cast into the oven: how much more will he clothe you, O ye of little faith? . . . Fear not, little flock; for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom" (Luke 12: 27, 28, 32).

Safety Month—Jan. 15-Feb. 15.

tendance. This is the most serious problem confronting our churches today. No church can be spiritually strong, and evangelistically adequate without the regular every Sunday attendance of its members.

The Swannanoa Free Will Baptist church invites all the churches in Black Mountain and Swannanoa community to join them in this crusade.

Our Slogan: Give God a Chance Now, attend church every Sunday.

WORK OF CHILDREN'S HOME DESCRIBED BY MRS. WHITAKER

The American Home and Civic club met Tuesday night, Jan. 19, with Mrs. C. D. Boone. Mrs. Fred Lucas and Mrs. G. C. Carson were co-hostesses. Mrs. Kermit Allison president, conducted the business meeting.

Recommended changes of the constitution and bylaws of the club were revised and accepted.

A finer Carolina Project was discussed and all members plan to take an active part. Plans for the Valentine party, which will be February 13, were announced. The various committees reported that plans were well under way for this event. Mrs. Joe Cheek, former club president, who is now living in Salisbury, was voted as an honorary member.

During the latter part of February a representative from the Children's Home in Greensboro will hold a course of instruction in work of the Children's Home. The Junior Woman's club and open house held on Sunday afternoon by Mr. and Mrs. Francis Wylie. At 3:30 Dr. William Ross had a short dedication service. From 4 to 6 a constant stream of friends came to visit and to see the new home.

A flower arrangement of yellow and lavender was on the dining room table. Those who assisted Mrs. Wylie were Mrs. J. P. Williams, Mrs. Gordon Greenwood, Mrs. Elisa Coppedge Fernandez, and Miss Elizabeth Hoyt. Mr. and Mrs. Wylie greeted their guests at the door. E. C. Eaton, president of the Montreat Garden club, presented a gift in appreciation of this couple's many deeds of kindness which they have done for their neighbors. This was on behalf of the Montreat community.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Coburn are spending a few weeks in Florida.

BROAD RIVER

By Mrs. M. M. Elliott.

American Home and Civic club members will meet together for this course.

Mrs. Dempsey Whitaker was in charge of the program on the Children's Home Society. She told how the home has grown from a very meager beginning to the present. She told of some of the work and love which goes to each individual child, in a story called, "This is Linda's Story."

After the business meeting and program an auction sale was held. Members had brought hand-made articles which were sold to the highest bidder. The proceeds were used for the P. T. A. school lunch fund.

Mrs. Henry Pittman, Jr., was welcomed into the club as a new member.

The hostesses served refreshments to the following members. Mrs. Fred Lucas, Mrs. Dempsey Whitaker, Mrs. Kermit Allison, Mrs. Charles Stepp, Mrs. Louis Phillips, Mrs. Lawrence Brandon, Mrs. Keith Townsend, Mrs. D. C.
