

Peekin' Through The KEYHOLE

With LIB

By Elizabeth Dinwiddie

Mrs. J. L. Koonce and sons Jim and Bill, returned Monday from a two weeks' visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Hedrick of Southern Pines. They also visited Mrs. Koonce's infant nephew, Bill Wood, of Sanford. Mr. Koonce drove down over the week-end and brought them home.

J. E. Farrior of Tracy City, Tenn., is visiting his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Nanney for an indefinite period.

Miss Sara Moseley will go to Charlotte Thursday (today) to be with her mother, Mrs. C. A. Moseley, who will observe her 94th birthday anniversary on Friday. Mrs. S. L. Woodward and Miss Lily Woods will accompany her, Miss Woods will go on to Davidson to visit friends.

Mrs. Frank Watkins and Carol and Mrs. Wilbur Huneycutt, Donna and Shirley, visited relatives in Gastonia, last Thursday and Friday.

Mrs. Anne Sharp Harrison, vice regent of the Ruth Davidson chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution and newly elected district vice regent, has returned from the D. A. R. state convention held in Durham.

Dr. William Henry Perrin of Union, S. C., uncle of Mrs. Charles Hawkins, died last Sunday following a long illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gragg, who are spending the winter in Florida, were called home last week due to the death of Mrs. Gragg's father, Sam R. Ammons of Andrews. They will return to Jacksonville this week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Wilson visited their son Cecil at the University, Chapel Hill, over the week-end.

Mrs. C. F. Seawright has returned from Edgefield, S. C., and is making her home with Mrs. Richard Seawright.

Mrs. J. K. Peterson has returned from a five months' visit with relatives and friends in Wilmington, Ivanhoe and Raleigh.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Nanney over the week-end were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Israel and Keith, Mrs. Margaret Peterson and Mrs. Ernestine Gallon and Jeanie, all of West Asheville.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Long visited their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cash and Libby, of Bryson City over the week-end.

Pvt. Ray Martin of Camp Gordon, Ga., recently spent several days with his sister, Mrs. C. J. Wilson, and family.

Stuart Byron of State College, Raleigh, and his roommate, Maurice Bauchard, spent the week-end with Stuart's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. Gordon Byron.

Mrs. Mae Morrison and Miss Ruby Owenby of Asheville spent last week with Mrs. Morrison's daughter, Mrs. Earl Lowery, and family. Miss Owenby is a sister of Mrs. Lowery.

Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Turner and children, who have been making their home in Perry Point, Md., are now living in Ridgcrest.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Longcoy, Jr., and Mrs. D. P. Dinwiddie visited Mr. and Mrs. Burton Osteen and sons, Preston and David, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Lusk and Rickey in Charleston, S. C., over the week-end.

A/3cc and Mrs. Onley G. Guffey and daughter Chris, arrived last Saturday for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Martin. A/3cc Guffey has just returned from duty in Alaska. He will receive his discharge at Donaldson Air Force base, Greenville, S. C., this week. Mrs. Guffey and Chris have been making their home in Detroit for the past few months.

Miss Anne Marie Molloy of St. Mary's College, Raleigh, spent the week-end with her mother, Mrs. Richard Oulahan, and Mr. Oulahan.

Miss Alice Turner will leave Saturday morning for Charlotte, where she will be affiliated with the Union National bank.

Mrs. Thomas Sharp, director of district one and two for radio and television and vice president of the Asheville Chapter of the United Daughters of Confederacy, has returned from the planning convention of the U. D. C. held in Pine Hurst where she represented the president, Mrs. John Stevens of Asheville. Mrs. Sharp is scholarship chairman also.

Joe Foster of State College, Raleigh, spent the week-end here in the home of his sister, Mrs. James Atkins.

Mrs. Dan McAfee of Blue Ridge, Ga., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. George McAfee and daughters for a few days.

Last Thursday the Halls at Fairlawn Lodge had as luncheon guests Mrs. Chester Spies, Misses Mary, Lela and Bertha Walters, Miss Mary MacKay, and Mrs. H. E. Stinchcomb.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Williams have returned from a vacation in Florida. En route home they stopped in Charlotte to visit Mr. and Mrs. John P. Williams and son, Wayne, and Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Evans, Kathy and Jean. Kathy returned home with her grandparents for a few days' visit. Her parents came for her over the week-end.

Mrs. Alton White and Miss Elizabeth Sloan of Charlotte spent the week-end with Miss Sara Moseley, Montreat road.

Mr. and Mrs. James Uzzell and daughters spent the week-end in Demorest, Ga., visiting the George Harts. Mr. Hart was formerly with the Western Sanatorium and is now the administrator for the Habersham County hospital.

Mrs. A. A. Gregg has sold her flower shop in Hobe Sound, Fla., and expects to return to Black Mountain in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ford and Andrea had as their week-end guests Mrs. Ilie West, Bob West, and Davey Robinson of Newport, Tenn.

Miss Peggy Williams of Meredith College, Raleigh, spent the

"Before" and "after" views of a block on Sunset Avenue show the success of a street widening and improvement project at Asheboro, "Carolina's Finest" among towns of 2,500 or more in the Finer Carolina contest. Asheboro won $1,000 first prize in the 1953 contest sponsored by Carolina Power & Light Co. City street work prompted improvements also in store fronts.

week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Stepp spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Outlaw, in Mount Olive.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Burnette and children, Joan, Carol, and Barbara, of High Point, spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bascomb Burnette.

Chester Sobol spent from Monday to Friday of last week in New York attending to business.

Dan Turner and George Ledford of Asheville left last Friday for a two weeks' vacation in Miami, Fla.

Max Woodcock won first place in the Heart Fund benefit bridge session conducted by the Asheville Unit, American Contract Bridge league held in the George Vanderbilt hotel last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Forest Austin, Mrs. J. H. Ledbetter, and Charles Biddix of Asheville visited the Austin's daughter Betty at Berea School of Nursing over the week-end. They attended the capping exercises, at which time Betty received her cap. On Sunday they all made a trip to Lexington, Ky.

Mrs. Louise Fowler and a friend of Thomasville visited the T. M.

GIRL SCOUT NEWS

Girl Scout Troop 52 met in the Fellowship room of the Presbyterian church March 3, 1954. The meeting was called to order. Mrs. S. D. Wiggins, our new troop committee chairman, was present at Farr family Monday night. Mrs. Fowler is Mrs. Farr's sister.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Miller have returned to their home here after spending the winter in Holly Hill, Fla.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Huffman had as week-end guests Mrs. Huffman's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Goodnight Jr., of Mt. Ulla, N. C.

Mrs. Brody Warren and Steve spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Smith, in Morganton. Mr. Warren drove down on Sunday for them.

the meeting. Mrs. Wiggins is going to give us a Red Cross first aid course. She is also going to help us with our outdoor work.

We discussed Senior Scouting and the motto for Girl Scout week, "Know your neighbor, know your nation." Since this week is Girl Scout week, we divided into three groups to plan skits on health and safety and to present them to the troop at our meeting on March 10.

Frances Kaplan and Peggy Cooley attended a round table discussion on Scouting. Troop representatives from the following towns were present: Black Mountain, Swannanoa, Asheville, West Asheville, Canton, and Waynesville.

We were happy to have two visitors, Gloria Jean Brookshire and Carolyn Pressley attend our meeting. Troop members attending the meeting were: Ann Ham, Marie Bengie, Donna Dotson, Barbara Babb, Frances Kaplan, Bronte Carpenter, Melba Riddle, Peggy Cooley, and the leader, Mrs. Kaplan.

Peggy Cooley, reporter.

The 3 per cent reduction in number of sheep on United States farms during 1953 probably means

The reduction in support prices year is expected to result in a 1954 market for milk and butterfat from 90 orally lower prices.

March 15th

Opening of:

ART'S GARDEN CENTER

"FOR FINER FLOWERS" 7525

Eckles' Building on Broadway
Black Mountain, N. C.

Opening Week Specials

- Geraniums - - - 87c Plus Tax
- Carnations - Per. Doz. $1.79 Plus Tax
- Glads - - Per. Doz. $1.79 Plus Tax

Azaleas & Chrysanthemum Plants
Roses and Other Cut Flowers

A Note to Good Health

... Prescribed by your physician ... filled by us ... promptly, surely.

Key City Pharmacy

Next Door to Bank - Opposite Depot - Phone 5231
PRESCRIPTION DRUGGISTS
Black Mountain, N. C.

Grand Opening

The Ladies' Shop

102 1/2 CHERRY STREET

BLACK MOUNTAIN, N. C.

9 A.M. -- FRIDAY -- MARCH 12

YOU ARE CORDIALLY INVITED TO VISIT THE LADIES' SHOP
BLACK MOUNTAIN, N. C.
FOR ALL YOUR NEEDS IN
LADIES' - READY - TO - WEAR

BE SURE TO REGISTER FRIDAY & SATURDAY FOR GRAND PRIZE!

1 Pair Hose Given To Lucky Name Drawn Every Hour On the Hour. Be Sure to Register. You Do Not Have To Be Present To Receive The Above Prizes!

our new 3 piece suit dress... in chambray denim

BOBBIE BROOKS takes "Avondale's" finest lightweight sanforized chambray denim... and styles a stunning ensemble for you! The trim, slim skirt has its own brief jacket... lined to match the gaily striped blouse. Wonderful colors in sizes 7 to 15.

THE LADIES' SHOP
102 1/2 Cherry Street
Black Mountain, N. C.

All Alterations Free - Use Our Lay-Away Plan For Your Easter Outfit!