There was a delightful B.T.U. picnic at the Wallace Pool last Friday evening. This social was given in honor of Steve Byrd who is going away to work during the summer. Mr. and Mrs. I. T. Brooks and Mrs. Earl Jolly sponsored the party, young folks attending were Billy Sue Rickman, Yvonne Lunsford, Barbara Burke, Daphne Jolly, Doris Nanney, Loretta Brooks, Donna Vee Gray, Steve Byrd, Calvin Brooks, Carl Nanny, Eric Jolly, and Stanford Brooks.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Moring have started housekeeping in the home of Henry's childhood. We wish these fine young folks every success. Henry is working in the Beacon.

I guess the editorial staff will notice that I have a new ribbon. It's funny how a certain thing makes you think of a certain person. When I sit down at this antiquated typewriter I often think of Mary Sue Reed, that charming young lady whose picture was in last week's News, you know I bought the machine from her several years ago. I probably bought the ribbon in honor of her graduation from nursing school.

I got lost in the Beacon the other night, the worst thing about it was that I was dragging a 950 lb. bale of rayon after me on a hand truck.

Is an elderly nan that tries his fortune with daisies a doddling old fool, or a romanticist? Mrs. Edith Matthews of Asheville was our house guest this week-end. Mrs. Matthews is Minnie's aunt.

Joe and Polly Bruner and family of East Marion had Sunday dinner with us. Mrs. Pink Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Knowlton, Gerald Lewis, and Danny Knowlton of Old Fort visited us Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. George Summer and small son "Buddy" of Newberry, S. C., are spending a week in this section. The Summers came here on their honeymoon several years ago, and have tried to come back each year at the same time. The Summer family presented our church with a beautiful picture of Christ at the morning service this Sunday in memory of their beloved mother, Mrs. Essie Summer Miller. We deeply appreciate this lovely gift.

The 88 Club had a cozy meeting in the educational rooms of the church Sunday afternoon. We had as guests Mr. and Mrs. Mac Burnette, Mrs. Della Hurst, Mrs. N. L. Perkins, Mr. Charlie Stancel, and two of Bob Cole's children all of Ridgecrest. Mac made a most entertaining talk about the history of our church, and our beloved Pearl played a medley of hymns on her accordion. After the meeting, we went over to the dam with Mrs. Perkins and Mr. Stancel.

Mrs. Bascom Burnette has been in the Mission hospital taking treatment for sometime, but we understand that she was to come home on Sunday.

Baxter Chandler and Thelma Williams are definitely "that way" about each other.

Mrs. Mollie Burnette Carver of Greensboro is dangerously ill. Mrs. Carver was born and reared on North Fork, and has many friends in this community.

George Burnette is doing some inside finish work on the home of the Bob Hauths. Our road work is coming right along, maybe next week I will give you some recollections about this old road. Betty Jean Shook's dog, Chief, is seriously sick.
