By Mrs. Mae Swann

Circle No. 2, W. S. C. S. Bethesda Methodist church met Thursday night, July 15, in the home of Mrs. Carl Deaton. The meeting opened with the song "A Charge to Keep I Have," followed by prayer by Mrs. Pearl Armistead. Mrs. Eva Buckner read a poem "A Guiding Star." Minutes were read and approved.

It was voted to have a bake sale at the next meeting just among the members. Members answered to roll call and paid their monthly dues.

Mrs. Eva Buckner read a card of thanks from N. B. Sheppard and one from P. F. Head. Mrs. James Tuck distributed all occasion cards for members to sell. Mrs. H. C. Miller read comments from the district secretary of Spiritual Life. Mrs. P. M. Carson was in charge of the program, entitled "Ways To Help Make Communities Truly Christian." Scripture Matt. 9:35-39. Others taking part were Mrs. Carl Noblett, Mrs. N. B. Sheppard, Mrs. Mary Burnette, and Mrs. George Young.

Following the hymn "More Like the Master," Mrs. Charles Webb led in prayer.

During the social hour refreshments were served to 14 members. Next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. James Tuck. Mrs. Pearl Armistead in charge of the program.

An ice cream supper was held at Bethesda Methodist church Saturday evening, July 17. The $62.00 realized from this supper will go into the building fund.

BEE TREE NEWS

By Mrs. C. M. Howie

We certainly have had hot, dry weather in the Bee Tree and Longs Branch sections. We have had very little rain in the last two weeks. Gardens are looking very puny from the hot dry weather, and the bean beetles certainly have taken their toll.

Mrs. Thomas G. Hall is doing very nicely at her home on Longs Branch road after undergoing surgery at St. Joseph's hospital. She
