Punch for a Summer Party

It's summer—it's hot, and we leave as much work as we possibly can until the weather gets cooler. No need for a hermit life though. We can still entertain our friends, the easy way. From the Test Kitchens of Minute Maid Fresh-Frozen Juices comes a timely recipe for Spiced Punch. Takes practically no time to fix and it's a wonderful way to serve a crowd. Instead of the conventional ice cubes to cool your punch—float a chilly iceberg of lemon sherbet in the center, for a different touch.

- Spiced Fruit Punch
1 cup sugar
1 cup water
1 teaspoon powdered allspice
1 can (6 oz.) Minute Maid Fresh-Frozen Orange Juice
2 cans (6 oz.) Minute Maid Fresh-Frozen Lemonade
Water
1 pint lemon sherbet
Sprig fresh mint

Place sugar and water in small pan and place over moderate heat, stirring just until sugar is dissolved. Bring to a boil. Add allspice and simmer gently 5 minutes. Cool. Blend Minute Maid Fresh-Frozen Juices with water following label directions. Add to cooled syrup. Place mixture in punch bowl. Float lemon sherbet in center and garnish with sprig of fresh mint. Approximately 20 4-oz. servings.

Miss Kate Wicker had a serious accident last week. She was putting some flowers in her garden and fell, striking the back of her head and receiving an ugly cut. She lost a great deal of blood before she was treated at the hospital. Fortunately her nephew, John Witherspoon, was there and took things in hand. John said, "Aunt Kate, you have given orders all over your life, but you are going to take some this time." Miss Wicker is getting along all right now. Charlie Melton is installing a Heatlater in the home of Thad Burnette.

In getting ready for our Bible school that is now running we were to make some plaster plaques for the children to paint. They were made by pouring moulding plaster into plastic moulds. Sounds easy, but there were a number of things to take into consideration, such as consistency and air bubbles—I tried it with sorry success, then Minnie and Nell McAfee set out to show me up. They didn't do any better than I did. Nell felt better when she found where I had emptied a mess of the plaster in the high weeds. The way is always made clear in a good cause—our talented Mrs. Grover Brookshire and her daughter, who is an artist at modelling and moulding, Gloria Jean Brookshire, came to our rescue and brought 24 lovely specimens to church Sunday night. I have been cutting out gunk-racks for the boys to assemble and finish. Ed DuPuy very kindly let me do this in his shop. Friends are always better than money.

Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Walker, their children, Roxie and Woody, and Mrs. Walker's brother, Bobby Patrick of Hattiesburg, Miss., are visiting relatives in this section. Elwood has been ill for some weeks and is only recently out of the hospital.
We had dinner last Saturday with the Charles Taylors. Charlie's brother, Robert, and Grady Trancham of Canton were helping him cut some logs.
We had some charming visitors this week-end. Betty Jean Shook and Louise Weaver spent Saturday night with us. Betty played and we sang until all hours, while we would rest Minnie would entertain the young ladies with stories. We have had many guests in our time but never any that we enjoyed more than these lovely girls. You know being a good guest is a fine art.
Mr. and Mrs. Ray Parker and their son Lloyd of Canton, came to our church Sunday and had dinner with us. Ray is a gospel singer of great renown. He sings with the Southernaires. After we had had dinner we went over to the North Fork dam and had a long visit with Claude McAfee.
Last Wednesday night at prayer meeting Mrs. Loyde Andrade, a missionary from Brazil, gave a talk full of deep feeling. She kept her audience enthralled with her stories of the hardships she had faced as she carried Christianity to the Indians of Brazil.
A delightful party and wiener roast was enjoyed at the Black Mountain club house on Saturday night. This was a junior B.T.U. picnic and was sponsored by Mrs. Sam Byrd. Those attending were: Carl Nanny, Eric Jolly, Franky Byrd, Pappy McGrath, Judy Byrd, Daphne Jolly, Shirley Williams, Barbara Burke, and Carol Witherspoon. They played many interesting games and sang hymns to Mrs. Byrd's guitar accompaniment. They were supposed to be home by 9:30, but no one in the group had a watch—they finally came in at 11:00 o'clock to greet some anxious parents.
The Rev. Donald Gant delivered the sermon at the morning service this Sunday. The message was of great depth, we expect this young man to do a great work. His late father holds a prominent place in the history of our church and is enshrined in our hearts.

GROUP STUDIES MISSION WORK IN PHILIPPINES
Mrs. Worth Cook presented a program on Southern Baptist work in the Philippine Islands to members of the Business Women's circle of the First Baptist church last week. The circle met with Mrs. Nilla Hall on East College street.

The meeting opened with the Lord's Prayer by the group. Mrs. Harry Carland and Mrs. Fred Higgenbotham led the discussions on foreign and community missions, after which the July lesson on the Philippines was given. Mrs. Irvin Page led the closing prayer.
Mrs. Hall served refreshments to Mrs. Fred Lucas, Mrs. Woody Beddingfield, Mrs. William F. Melton, Mrs. Bill Holcombe, Mrs. Carl Moore, Mrs. Page, Mrs. Cook, Mrs. Higgenbotham, and Mrs. Carland. On Aug. 10 the members of the circle will meet at the church at 6:45 p. m. and go to Ridgecrest for the evening service of the W. M. U. conference.

their guests Mrs. Ruth Bridges and children Kenneth and Louise, Mrs. O. B. Creasman and daughters, Carolyn and Nancy, Mrs. Mildred Allen and daughter Carolyn, all of Swannanoa.
On Monday Mrs. Faye Smith of Leicester visited her daughter, Mrs. Royer Lewis and children Ricky and Genella on Patton Cove road.
