Mrs. V. B. Morgan, Conway, S. C., is the guest this week of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Pate. The music and flowers at our church Sunday contributed much to the beauty and effectiveness of the service. Flowers from the garden of Mrs. Eugene Y. Moore and especially the gorgeous dahlias plus the arrangement of them by Mrs. R. L. May created a worshipful atmosphere. Mrs. May at the organ.

DISABLED WORLD WAR TWO VETS WHO STILL WISH TO TAKE VOCATIONAL REHABILITATION TRAINING UNDER PUBLIC LAW 16...

Eligible veterans may get a course of training not to exceed 36 months, at the rate of 1 1/2 days training for each day of service after June 27, 1950, regardless of where the service was performed.

Eligible requirements include: (1) active military or naval service at any time between June 27, 1950, and a date yet to be established either by Presidential Proclamation or by a concurrent resolution of Congress; (2) at least 90 days was smilingly happy amidst those large baskets of flowers as she made the organ give forth lovely music.

Did you know that Bill Bradley left August 23 for Fort Jackson to do his bit in the army. I urge you to write him. His address is Private William B. Bradley RA 14540153, Pine Line Co. H, 506 Abn Inf, Reg. T, 101st Abn Div, Fort Jackson, S. C. He's hungry to hear from his friends and please write him before his address is changed again by Uncle Sam. A card will help but a letter will be better.

Off to Carolina Hemlock camp went a party Saturday for a Labor Day holiday and according to good authority Messrs. Dan and Don Turner, Pete Brittain, Miss Alice Turner, Mr. and Mrs. Ned Straehla, Mr. and Mrs. Howerton Price had a grand picnic with "chicken in the basket" and "steak on the platter" along with "pickles in the dish" and "coffee in the pot" over the week-end. They returned Monday afternoon tired and sleepy after much fun on the trip.

Mrs. Edythe Yeamans and children of Detroit flew in Friday from a nine weeks' tour of Europe to see her father Mr. T. C. McKim and her sister, Mrs. Willard K. Weeks before Mr. McKim left for St. Petersburg, Fla., after spending the summer here at Ridgecrest. Master Willis Yeamans won the Ping Pong tournament on the Queen Elizabeth on the return trip from Europe.

The Rev. and Mrs. Tom E. Walters of Steadman paid us a pleasant visit Sunday evening before they returned to their home Monday morning. They closed their cottages here after a very pleasant season and look toward being back next summer.

Mrs. Nina Taylor Wilson spent Sunday evening to Tuesday evening at the George Vanderbilt hotel, Asheville with her daughter in law Mrs. Stan Wilson of Anchorage, Alaska. Monday morning saw the Ridgecrest store being razed. Mr. Paul Harris who has been in business here about forty years erected the building 25 years ago. It is like moving a cherished landmark. No, Mr. Harris is not going out of business. He is moving his stock of goods temporarily to Perkin's Corner and Moore circle. After a month or so he will be in his new store building next door to the new postoffice. Mr. Harris is only making way for the new highway which is being graded through Ridgecrest. You'll find him with Mrs. Harris in the Perkins building with the same smile, ready service, helping hands, willing accommodations, the big welcome and shelves and counters loaded with just the things you need for your pantry and dining table.

The old Holman building on No. 70 at Depot street which housed the postoffice here about 20 years has disappeared and much of it is being used by contractor Paul Turner in other structures. What memories the disappearance of this building brings to all of us. The site is hidden, covered, lost from view but the memory of things associated with that spot of earth remains. The tramp of feet around the door of the building, the school bus stop and the laughter of our boys and girls, the arrival of mail, the "Flop" of the pouch as it fell from the shoulder of Mr. Paul Harris, the click of the key as the mail bags, another "click" and the lock fell from the bags, the shuffling of every class of mail, the lobby filled with eager patrons whose emotions, and sometimes wrath, were stirred when "yes, here it is," a letter, card, package, statement, bill, dun, paper, magazine or book was shoved into their boxes. Our own mail came to this building in 1936 to 1939 to Box 55 from February weeks of well, now the closing weeks of 1954. Memories cluster around that old building site.

of total service, or a discharge for disability incurred on active duty if the service was for less than 90 days; (3) a discharge under other than dishonorable conditions. All three conditions must be met.

Eligible veterans may get a course of training not to exceed 36 months, at the rate of 1 1/2 days training for each day of service after June 27, 1950, regardless of where the service was performed.

Eligible veterans may choose their own course of training in any school or establishment approved by an appropriate State Approving Agency that meets other qualifications of the law. Veterans may (1) enroll in schools or colleges; (2) take apprenticeship or other training on-the-job; (3) enroll in institutional on-farm training or other programs which combine school and job training; or (4) select correspondence school courses.

No more than one change of course program is allowed. Veterans receive an education and training allowance each month from the Government to meet part of the expenses of their training and living costs. Tuition, fees, books, supplies and equipment are not paid by the Government; instead, they have to be paid by the veterans with the help of the monthly allowance they receive from the Government.

WRIGHT MEMORIAL Upon the storied windswept hill, Aglow with nightly splendor, The shaft of granite stands alone, Man's token to endeavor.

Thus, sharing all their glorious dream,— The labor and dejection, Determined to succeed at last,— The brothers sought perfection.

The rate of payment for veterans without dependents who are in full-time training in schools and colleges is $110 a month; for those with one dependent $135, and for those with more than one dependent $160. Veterans in training less than full time will receive proportionately lower monthly rates. For on-the-job trainees without dependents, the top monthly payment is $70; for those with one dependent, $85, and for those with more than one dependent, $105.

For veterans in institutional on-farm training, which combines classroom instruction with practical on-farm work, the top monthly payment for those with dependents is $95; for those with one dependent, $110, and for those with more than one dependent, $130. The law requires that on-job and on-farm rates of payment be reduced, at 4-month intervals, as the training progresses. The law also requires that veterans taking institutional on-farm training must devote full time to their program. (DR-6-42)
