Woodward at the meeting of Circle 1 of the Presbyterian church Tuesday, Sept. 7, in the fellowship room of the church. Mrs. W. H. Barkley presented "Christian Education", taken from the church news. Mrs. Margaret James and Miss Mary Hooker served as hostesses.
A social hour was enjoyed after the meeting and refreshments served to Mrs. G. F. Bell, Mrs. Currie Betts, Mrs. S. M. Bittinger, Mrs. Fred Treat, Miss Susan Hooker, Mrs. Barkley, Miss Ruby Joffile, Miss Sarah Kirby, Mrs. G. L. Kirkpatrick, Mrs. A. E. Knoefel, Sr., Miss Katherine Mourning, Mrs. L. B. Poole, Mrs. Clifford Porter, Mrs. Ann Sharp Harrison and Mrs. Don Wright, who was a visitor. Miss Mary Hooker is circle chairman.
The next meeting will be held at the Mountain Orphanage with Mrs. Barkley and Miss Rose Rule serving as hostesses.

BROAD RIVER BEE TREE NEWS

By Mrs. M. M. Elliott.
Mr. and Mrs. Carles Maymes of Asheboro spent the week end with Mrs. Haynes' mother, Mrs. Dora Nanney.
There was a large attendance at the home coming at Stone Mountain last Sunday. There was singing, choir singing and special quartet from the Gospel Quartet from Pine Knob, the four tone quartet from Morganton and other special singers. Our pastor, the Rev. Frank Hollifield, delivered the message Sunday morning. Flowers for the cemetery were the scarcest we've had for many years. There was an abundance of food for everyone. There was singing and a testimonial meeting in the afternoon.
Clifford Nanney of the U. S. Army is spending his furlough with his wife Marie and his mother, Mrs. Carrah Lee Nanney, and children Bert, Griva, and Stuart on Bald Mountain. At the termination of his furlough his wife will accompany him back to his station at the Smoky Hill Air Base in Salina, Kansas.
Mrs. Girtha Ownbey of this community spent a few days last week with her sister-in-law Miss Frances Ownbey, in Black Mountain.
Mrs. Lola Nanney and her daughter, Mrs. Ruth Davis, and small son and John Nanney, son of the late Wally Nanney of Asheville, spent the week end at their old home in this community.
We had the following visitors last Sunday afternoon. My husband, brothers and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Lum Elliott and children of Buffats, S. C., Roland Elliott, Hoover Hall and Wayne Elliott of this section, and my great nephew and his wife, Rev. and Mrs. Fred Vess of Swannanoa.
There will be a home coming at Clear Branch P. H. Church on Broad River next Sunday Sept. 19. Everyone is invited.
The revival meeting will start at Stone Mountain next Sunday night. The visiting ministers will be the Rev. Mr. Chatman of Shingle Hollow. Everyone is invited to come and be with us in our revival.
Mont Murphy, who was badly injured some time ago and has been a patient in Bat Cave hospital, is improving. He was taken to his home on Lower Cedar Creek last Sunday afternoon.
Walker Elliott, who has been in very poor health for some years, is back in Marion hospital.
Luther Ledbetter is sick at his home on Broad River.
The decoration will be at the little cemetery on the Mark Elliott place the fourth Sunday, Sept. 26, in the afternoon.

You'll like it!
This is no gamble—it's a "sure thing" in your favor. The next time you face the monthly bills, why not face the facts, too?
Why should you pay MORE for TWO household services, when ONE service can do ALL your household chores. And do them safer, cleaner, better, at a lower monthly cost to you! You already use Electricity to light your home; brighten your radio or TV hours; refrigerate your food or do your laundry. This same matchless service can also cook your meals and heat your water.
So, be completely modern — go ALL-Electric! Thousands of homemakers have switched to this wonderful way to brighten their home-life and lighten their household. They've gone from TWO household services to ALL-Electric, and they like it! We'll wager you'll like it, too, when you go from "2 to 1."
MRS. WALTER ROBERTS OF ASHEBORO, N. C., SAYS: "The outstanding feature of my electrically equipped home is the economy of operation. I have a combination washer-dryer, electric range, refrigerator, automatic ironer, water heater, plus mixer and percolator. I feel entirely safe leaving my children to cook while I'm away. The safety features of my appliances give me peace of mind."
WORKLESS WASHDAYS AHEAD...
Keep washday temperatures down, the workless way. Let an automatic electric washer do the hard work. All you do is put in the clothes, set the dial, and then forget it. Rainy season is coming soon but an electric dryer can solve that problem. Your Electric Dealer has a wide variety of automatic electric washers and dryers... a wonderful pair for rainy, wintry weather ahead.
BE MODERN— go All-Electric!
