—R—
Martin Nesbitt, Jr., son of the Oakley principal, follows the golden rule and does unto others even though they are trying to do unto him.
Two weeks ago when N. C. Shuford and I were standing high on the bank watching the Oaks and Warhorses push each other around the field, Martin, who is an avid Oakley supporter, left his comfortable place atop the steps, went to the refreshment stand and returned with a Coke for the two Black Mountain supporters.

Maybe he was trying to give us something to do so we wouldn't talk so much about the Black Mountain-Swannanoa team but we thought he was just trying to show courtesy and mercy to the enemy.

According to CLARENCE "HOYLE" HOWELL
WHAT ARE YOU DOING TO BUILD A BETTER WORLD?
Let us as true believers plan our future and take all opportunities, as God has many if we will accept them.
Let us prepare ourselves for disappointments. They are sure to come. But be steadfast and trust in the faith that never fails. Let us use our God-given vision to enjoy our American way of life in this land of opportunity God has blessed so well.
In every sense of the word, America is a land of opportunity. In no other country in this world can men live and become leaders as they do in America.
