

Owen Wins Twice From Fairview

The Owen High school girls outlasted the Fairview girls to win in an overtime, 57 to 54, and Dale Ritchie scored 29 points as the boys made it a clean sweep in the nightcap, 66 to 43, here Tuesday evening.

After Ann Leatherwood had knotted the count at 50-all with only a few seconds left, Charlotte Knoefel, who has the knack of scoring when the chips are down, tossed in three points and Lynda Martin and Leatherwood two each to cinch the victory.

Patty Tyson and Martin were high with 15 each while E. M. Conner with 27 and E. Conner with 18 paced the Fairview girls.

High School News

By Patty Tyson.

The seniors appreciate wholeheartedly the generosity of the P. T. A. in their project of landscaping the area in front of the new school in their honor.

The main concern of everyone at the present is preparing to move into the new school next week. There will be many adjustments to make and it will take the co-operation of everyone. The idea of moving into the new school is looked upon with mixed feeling. For the lower classmen it probably won't make too much difference, but for the seniors the occasion will be rather sad. Open house is being held on Saturday, Jan. 22, 5:00 p. m. until 8:00 p. m. Everyone is cordially invited to attend.

Mr. Shuford deserves much praise for his untiring work and thought in setting up the schedule and the general run of things. The teachers have also given much of their time in arranging the schedules for all of the students.

The work in the office has been suffering the past two weeks, because Mrs. Humphries has been staying at home with her son, George Kelly, who is recuperating from spinal meningitis. In the new high school Mrs. Humphries will not be in the office, but will teach bookkeeping and physical education.

The student council has compiled a printed student directory. This will be very informative to all the students in Black Mountain and in Swannanoa.

We are right in the middle of basketball season now. The girls have shown up better than the boys so far, but we are hoping that they will come through alright. The ball game last Friday night between our "war lassies" (no official nickname has been presented) and the North Buncombe girls proved to be quite a thriller. A basket in the last six seconds of the game iced the win for North Buncombe, the loop leaders. This week Fairview and North Buncombe provide our teams with another rough slate. The fine attendance at the games helps the morals of the teams. Keep it up!

With The Sick

E. S. Dees has recovered from a severe cold. Kelly Benge received a broken arm in a fall last week. Mrs. Charles Hawkins has been ill at her home for several weeks. Mrs. I. L. Pence has returned to her home, after being a patient at Memorial Mission hospital.

with Beacon on the Black Mountain floor Monday evening. This game had been originally set for Swannanoa but was switched to Black Mountain at the last minute.

The Lions have been playing a great brand of ball but so far haven't been able to draw flies at the gate. Monday evening players and officials of the Lions club alike hope to see a full house on hand for the battle of the year, Beacon vs Black Mountain.

MRS. DAVIS HOSTESS FOR WOMAN'S CLUB

The Black Mountain Woman's club held its January meeting at the home of Mrs. W. A. Davis on Lake Gap road last Wednesday. Hostesses were Mrs. Davis, Mrs. Anne Harrison, Mrs. Lee Butler, Mrs. W. M. Pate, Mrs. J. H. Garland, Miss Edith Chatterton and Miss Mary Young.

Miss Lou Lindsey, president, presided over the business meeting first and then introduced Mr. E. B. Arey, merchandising representative of the Shell Oil company who presented a Carol Lane award to the club for its work in community safety last year. Mrs. James A. Crawford, safety chairman, was asked to accept the award for the club.

Miss Lindsey then introduced Mayor Dempsey Whitaker, a special guest for this occasion.

The club went on record as opposing the "closed shop" in North Carolina.

The club also voted to adopt the School Safety Patrol as its project in the "Finer Carolina Program."

Following the presentation of the award, the meeting was turned over to the program chairman who presented Mr. Bernard Szold, director of the Asheville Community theatre. Mr. Szold spoke briefly on "The New Road of the Theatre," the community theatres all over the country, telling his audience that more and more the rising actors of today and tomorrow come from these community theatres and that community theatres are becoming more and more professional in their productions. Mr. Szold himself, an accomplished actor, artist, writer and director then gave three monologues: "Grandma" by John Weaver, "Italian Pedler" from a play and Edgar Lee Masters' well-known and well loved poem "Silence."

Mr. Szold was formerly a drama coach of such successful stars as Judith Anderson, Nina Foch, Henry Fonda, Peggy Wood, Forest Tucker and many others.

While in Hollywood, Mr. Szold was appointed by the War Department as administrator of all soldier entertainment in the nine states of the ninth service command. He later went overseas and served in the ETO in charge of the first USO shows.

The old photograph of the band which was published two weeks ago stirred memories of those who remember the time around 1908-09 when it was taken. For all these years it had rested in a trunk at the home of W. E. McDougle. He let us borrow it for publication.

Many recalled some of those in the picture but the two most complete lists were submitted by Mrs. Phil Glenn and W. Bingham Gragg. Although their lists may not agree 100 per cent it must be remembered that they were trying to recall events of many years ago. For the record we are republishing the picture along with their lists. Here's Mrs. Glenn's:

Third row, L. to R., Allen Coggins 1, Unknown 2, Water Stepp 3, Bob Dotson 4, Dr. Landis 5, Dave Glenn 6, Charlie Boone 7.

Dr. Richardson Appears Before Groups In S. C.

Dr. Frank Howald Richardson of Black Mountain, author and specialist in the diseases of children, was guest Monday, Jan. 10, of the Laurens (S. C.) Central Parent-Teachers association, to wind up a day of discussions with parent groups with an address that night before the January meeting of the association in the auditorium of the school.

His schedule called for a talk at 1 p. m. before a luncheon of a joint meeting of all the civic clubs of the city in the community hall, three group meetings in the afternoon at the graded school building and the night meeting of the association at 8 p. m. in the graded school building.

The afternoon meetings were for mothers of children of various age groups and included round table discussions with questions. Mothers were invited to ask questions on anything they wished in reference to any and all things they considered important, it was stated by Dr. M. M. Teague, president of the parent-teacher organization and in charge of the program.

Dr. Richardson appeared before the pre-school group from 2:30 to 3:30; the elementary group from 3:30 to 4:30 and the teen-age group from 4:30 to 5:30.

Dr. Teague said that the P. T. A. felt itself particularly fortunate in securing Dr. Richardson for this day of parent-teacher advancement.

For more than two weeks Nell McAfee has been ill and confined to her home. She is much better now and plans to go back to work soon. Nell is sorely missed in our church activities, and we are desolate when she is "laid up." If anyone is in the market for a good cook and housekeeper they might contact Claude McAfee, he has had two weeks of good experience. He might double for a practical nurse. His patient seems to think that he could make the grade.

The Wicker sisters have come back to their home on North Fork. They have had city water put into their house. The main reason that they had to go to town for awhile was that their water supply failed in the early fall.

The Emory Penland family have not recovered from their recent siege of the flu.

There will be a Bible study course at Mountain View church starting this Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock. This is to be tentative.

Let's all rare back and give three cheers for the Black Mountain News—they finally spelled Renne's name right.

Visiting us last Sunday were: Joe Bruner and family of East Marion, Charles Taylor and family of Black Mountain, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Van Court of Haw Creek, Mrs. Frank Williams, and Mrs. Ethel Gentry of Asheville.

A group of our men are thinking of organizing some Sunday afternoon short hikes. We'll let you know how we get along.

I thought that I was going to have a long-winded story for you this week, but just haven't had time. Perhaps I will have it for next week.

We are glad to learn that Mrs. Darius Patton is home from the hospital and doing very well.

William Hickey painted a lovely picture of our church for us.
