DINNER IS GIVEN FOR O. S. ROGERS ON 86TH BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Rogers at home Sunday in Canton honoring Mr. Rogers' father, O. S. Rogers, who was observing the 86th birthday anniversary. They took with them his father's sister Mrs. Medford, who is 88 and who is staying with the Rev. and Mrs. J. N. Williams of Montreat. Her husband was a doctor at Cape N. C.

Mr. Rogers, who has been afflicted with the Stames Cove Baptist church for 40 years, serving as superintendent and Bible teacher, also has another living sister in Waverlyville, and two living brothers, one in Rutherfordville and one in Gary, Ga.

Approximately 200 relatives were present to help him celebrate the occasion.

In another election the students have selected Marion and White as the school colors for Owen High school.

As We See Ourselves

By Sessy Gragg and Patty Tyson. (Thursday, March 24)

Last week the honor roll which is part of our high school news was printed on the front page. When making out the honor roll, we overlooked Mrs. Eva Russell's eleventh grade honor roll. The following names should be added to the list: A. Luter roll—Scott Shephard; B. Luter roll—Benny Woody and Carolyn Thomas. We offer our sincerest apologies to these people for omitting their names.

Dorrie Burnett, Paul Foster, and Jacqueline McMillan were chosen as delegates to attend the Future Teachers Convention in Asheville last week-end. Those representing the faculty at the NCEA convention were Y. L. McMillan and Miss Rebecca Saunders. We are all very proud of Duke

Effie, who was selected to play on the Swain County All-star team against surrounding county teams in the annual Blue and White Tournament at the Ennis gymnasium. Our congratulations are due also to Kenneth, Elliot, and John Williams, who were in Raleigh last week-end competing in the finals of the Talent for Service Scholarships. We all certainly hope that the results of these tests and interviews will be favorable to both of these boys.

At the County Beta Club meeting in Asheville last Thursday night, the following Deas represented our chapter: Patty Tyson, Dorcas Bridges, Sara George, and Sara Dickens.

We were greatly honored to have at our assembly program last Friday Oliver Alexander and Sergeant E. W. Jones of the State Highway Patrol. Sergeant Jones, introduced by Mr. Alexander, spoke to us about the importance of safety while driving and walking. He said there are five necessities to driving a car: good eyesight, mechanical skill, a knowledge of the rules of the road, a driver's license, and the proper attitude. These requirements, with the exception of a license, would also apply to a pedestrian. After Sergeant Jones' talk on safety, a discussion on rules of the road followed.

In the election for the Civitan Good Citizenship award to seniors Nancy Jones and Stanley Gregory from the former Swannanoa high school were chosen. There will be a runoff between Nancy Thompson and Sara Dickens for the girls and between Kenneth Elliot and Donny Glaser for the boys to determine the candidates for the former Black Mountain High school. The results will be published next week.
