BEE TREE NEWS

By Mrs. C. M. Howie

Visiting the Thomas G. Halls for the Easter holidays were Mrs. Hall's son John Bryant, his wife and little son of Lincoln Park, Mich.

Visiting the Stokley Brooks family of Bee Tree road the week end of April 1 were Mr. and Mrs. Orval Sexton and family of Harrison, Tenn., also a niece Miss Rosa Lee Ruppe.

Aunt Cora Morgan of Long Branch has been very sick now for the past three weeks.

Monroe Howie, Stokley Brooks, and Arthur Brooks all went fishing the past week end. They had a good catch this time.

Bradford Burnette, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bradford Burnette of Bee Tree road, is holding a revival in Illinois at the present time and his wife and children are visiting his and her parents.

Mrs. Ann Sawyers of Grovmont gave her little daughter Brenda a birthday party April 2, celebrating her third birthday, which was March 31. All the little Sawyers generation attended. All had a wonderful time. Games were played, after which refreshments were served to all present. J. B. Sawyers of Grovmont, Mrs. Charles English, chairman; Mrs. Roy Lyda, secretary-treas.; Mrs. Roy Buchanan, program chairman; Mrs. Paul Warner, community mission work for the Edwinn Dozier Business Woman's circle of a Baptist church in Roanoke, Va., given by Mrs. Mabel Taylor. The meeting closed with a circle of prayer on remembering prayer objects and the coming revival. A social time was enjoyed with refreshments served by the hostesses to 12 members.

The Virginia Fowler circle met Tuesday morning at 9:30 at the home of Mrs. Troy Buchanan on central avenue. Five members and one new member, Mrs. Henry Gibbs, were present. Officers were elected as follows: Mrs. Charles English, chairman; Mrs. Roy Lyda, secretary-treas.; Mrs. Roy Buchanan, program chairman; Mrs. Paul Warner, community mission work for the Edwinn Dozier Business Woman's circle of a Baptist church in Roanoke, Va., given by Mrs. Mabel Taylor. The meeting closed with a circle of prayer on remembering prayer objects and the coming revival. A social time was enjoyed with refreshments served by the hostesses to 12 members.

The Lucy Wright circle met with Mrs. W. M. Fox Tuesday night at 7:30 with 10 members present. Mrs. George Penley opened the meeting with prayer. Mrs. Fox gave the devotionals from the 3rd chapter of John. Taking missions and program were Mrs. Fred McEuen, Mrs. Grady McCrain, Mrs. Selma Hall, with the closing prayer by Mrs. Fox. Prayer meetings were planned for the revival. A social hour followed. Others present were Mrs. H. H. Ingle, Mrs. Frank Allen, Mrs. Grant Ballard, Mrs. Martha Aiken, and Mrs. W. A. Ledford. The May meeting will be with Mrs. George Penley.

Presbyterian Circles
Circle No. 1 of the Swannanoa Presbyterian church met with Mrs. Eugene Loven at the home of Mrs. Oliver Alexander. The meeting opened with a call to prayer by using the reading of a letter from a missionary in Formosa after which all joined in a circle of prayer for missions and the coming evangelistic meeting. Just before a most interesting Bible lesson, "Our peace with God" was given by Mrs. Dixon Connelly, the group sang a hymn. The program was on the subject of "Christian colleges" and was given by Mrs. E. H. Capps. During the business session plans for attending group conferences at Black Mountain were discussed as well as plans for giving a number of needed utensils to the church kitchen. Also present were Mrs. Charles Porter, Mrs. J. M. Buckner, Mrs. Yancy Fortune, Mrs. Joe Porcher, Mrs. Annie Young, Mrs. G. B. Talbot, and Mrs. Elizabeth Connelly. The May meeting will be with Mrs. Joe Porcher.

Presbyterian Circle No. 2 met Monday afternoon at 2:30 at the home of Mrs. A. B. Whitt with nine members present and a visitor, Mrs. Wheatie from Warren Wilson college. Mrs. W. B. Stone opened the meeting by reading "Just where I find His Prints." Mrs. John Brown led in prayer. Mrs. Whitt gave the Bible lesson, "Peace with God." During business needed items were discussed for each member to add to the church kitchen. Mrs. Wheatie, who is housemother for girls at Warren Wilson, gave a most interesting talk on "Christian Education on College Campus" and of some of the personal experiences with foreign students there, their spiritual background, and how well the student goes along together of special interest was the prayer life of one Korean student and another of a native of India who plans to return to his country as a missionary even though he will be considered an outcast for accepting our Christ and Christianity of our country for his Savior too. After the benediction a social hour was enjoyed. The May meeting will be with Mrs. John Brown. Mrs. Whitt will have the program.

Altar Society
Sixteen ladies of the Altar Society of St. Margaret Mary's church in Grovmont met Monday evening at 8:00 p.m. in the rectory. Following the opening prayer reports of secretary-treasurer were given. The date for covered dish supper was set for April 30 at the Swannanoa Recreation building with Mrs. Ralph Magnant as chairman. Reports were given on the spring deanery meeting attended by the executive board of the parish in Asheville on March 20. Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Alma and Mrs. Lemieux. The meeting adjourned and refreshments were enjoyed during a social hour.

A TRIBUTE To Those Who Are Getting The Message Through
In cities and towns over the South today, thousands of men and women are maintaining a great tradition. They are telephone employees who are on the job, and because of them, the messages are going through. In our Company, we call it the spirit of service. This spirit never burned so brightly as it does today -- and in the hearts of the men and women at the switchboards completing the calls and at other vital posts of duty keeping the lines open -- making sure that their communities have dependable telephone service 24 hours a day. We salute them -- for their sense of duty, their skill and their magnificent spirit.
WE ARE DEEPLY GRATEFUL FOR THE PATIENCE, UNDERSTANDING AND FRIENDLY COOPERATION OF TELEPHONE USERS EVERYWHERE.
