LOST, STRAYED—

this organization the girls gain self reliance in a way that is real fun.

The committee that has so hard to find leaders for Day Camp found that the many seemed willing, none of them were sufficiently trained for the job. Therefore plans underway now to have some training during the coming week to prepare leaders for the camp summer. These unit leaders, assistant unit leaders, several gram aides and a first aid nurse are needed for a camp next mer. If you are interested in learning how much fun you have in the out-of-doors and gratifying it to help a girl this wholesome realization, contact Miss Ruby Jolliff or Mrs. Styles sometime this summer. Planning and training will be for several hours a month during the winter.

The friendships that bud in chopping wood and building campfire, blossom into never-fading flowers during songs, stories and games in those warm flames. Let us give our pledge now that girls will not miss this opportunity again next year.
