Weather. electrical storms...
When a dark cloud looms up now, people scurry to shut the windows, pull down the shades, turn off the TV, and some even get in the closet. Needless to say, it will be a relief when the summer storms have been quieted by cooler weather.

Streets Paved.
One block of Railroad street, one of Church street and one of Maple street are being hard surfaced in Old Fort. This added three blocks are near the center of town, and completes the job of paving north of the railroad.

Byrons Vacation Abroad.
B. G. Byron, administrative assistant at Old Fort Finishing company, and Mrs. Byron, have recently returned from a month's vacation abroad. The Byrons crossed the Atlantic by air both ways (without incident) and say that it is a marvelous way to travel. It had been 36 years since Mr. Byron had seen his native land. Mrs. Byron was born in New York of Scottish parents, and it was upon one of her visits with relatives in Scotland that she and Another new modern home now under construction.

19 other buildings already completed or nearing completion.
100 occupants already living in the new completed homes.
43 Homesites already sold, new construction of many of them expected soon.

$100,000.00 additional private finance available for the construction of new modern homes in the six-to-seven thousand price range, either for rent or sale.

Three more building contractors have approved SKY HARBOR and are now ready to build modern homes complete for a cost of $9,811 square foot to your plans and specifications. These homes may be "F.H.A." financed through a conventional finance company that have approved this location, the monthly rental on these new homes will be $9.81 per room per month or $59.81 per month for a two bedroom home. The only difference between renting and buying a new modern home in Sky Harbor is the small down payment of approximately $250.00. Then the purchase payment and you're up-to-date to your home.

If you have heretofore been unsuccessful in your attempts to purchase a home elsewhere, see us at once, we may be able to now make it possible as we personally finance and carry all the home's expenses to the road to a new modern home.

Hande all details, have home plan books and blueprints now available for your consideration, and approval, materials available to construct the home, and those reasonably priced homesites to be had anywhere. Come out at once to inspect, compare, then act - SKY HARBOR HAS EVERYTHING.

month, which certainly is something they couldn't have said, had they stayed at home.
Watt Twitty Passes.
Robert Watt Twitty, 72, respected citizen of Old Fort, died of a heart attack in the garden at his home on Thursday afternoon. He had had a heart condition for some time.
Twitty was a community leader in civic and church affairs, and was an expert brick mason. He had taught his sons, Robert and Paul, the art of building with brick and rock, and they are well known by contractors and architects for their superb workmanship.
Funeral services were held at 2:30 p.m. on Sunday in the Catawba View Baptist church. The Rev. M. M. Hooper officiated.
Surviving are the widow, a daughter, Mary Ann, of the home; two sons, Paul of Old Fort and Robert of Washington, D. C., and a grandson. Henry Funeral Home of Asheville was in charge of the arrangements.

Blanche Rock.
Mrs. Blanche Rock was saddened last week by the death of one of its native daughters, Mrs. Blanche Crawford Rock, who had been ill for many months.
Mrs. Rock was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Crawford, prominent citizens of Old Fort in years gone by. Mrs. Rock, who died at her girlhood home where she had lived for the last several years, was a gentlewoman of quiet dignity and charm. She always greeted acquaintances with a cheerful smile until her illness confined her to her residence.
Funeral services were held on Wednesday at 11:00 a.m. at Westmoreland-Hawkins Funeral home in Marion, with the Rev. A. P. Mack officiating. Burial was in the Old Fort cemetery.
Surviving are one daughter, Mrs. Guyon Whitten of Thomasville; four grandchildren, four sisters, Mrs. Elizabeth Crawford Beam, Mrs. Joe Giles of Old Fort, Mrs. C. C. Wyche of Spartanburg, and Mrs. J. W. Smith of Manchester; and one brother, Joe W. Crawford of Charlotte.
Funeral services were held on Thursday at 2:00 p.m. in her home community, Chesnee, S. C., for Mrs. Thelma Christine Hudgins who was killed on Tuesday afternoon when a bolt of lightning struck her home on the Moffitt Hill Church road. The Rev. Orvil Roundtree officiated. Interment was in the church cemetery.
Surviving are the husband, three sons, Kenneth, Harold and Edwin and three daughters, Kathryn, Rachel and Gail. Also surviving are the father, G. Foster Ezell of Chesnee, S. C., one brother and four sisters, Mrs. Buford G. Foster Ezell of Chesnee, S. C.; one brother and four sisters, Mrs. Buford Lamb, and Mrs. J. H. Ezell of Chesnee, Mrs. Kathryn Clark of Spartanburg, Mrs. Marion Burke of Greenville, and W. L. Ezell of Santa Anna, Calif. Persons.

Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Saunders of Charlotte visited friends in Old Fort during Saturday and Sunday. They were guests at Ragle hotel. Mrs. Saunders is the former Miss Marie Sabom of this place and was employed in the postoffice for a number of years, and has many friends in this section.
Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Simmons of Iron City, Ga., spent the weekend with Mrs. Simmons' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Simmons and his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Simmons.
Mrs. Myrtle Chaney has as her guest her daughter, Mrs. Duncan Raff.
Eck Haney accompanied his daughter Mrs. William Elippo, Mr. Flippo and son Bill, to Harrisonburg, Va., for a visit. The Flippos have been guests at the Haney home for the past week.
Mr. and Mrs. L. Caplan, Miss Margaret Marley, and little Linda Caplan have returned from a 10 day motor trip which extended into Canada. Their itinerary included tours of most of the major cities en route and the outstanding scenic attractions. They traveled 2700 miles, and Mr. Caplan said that he had an enjoyable but tiring trip.
Mrs. Frances Artz Eissing, who has been abroad for several months, has returned to her home on Maple street.
Mrs. Alvin Nesbitt and sons, Tommy and Bruce, of Fairview were Sunday guests of the will Silvers family in West Fort.
Miss Ellen Hodges of Atlanta, sister of Mrs. Oscar Baker, was her overnight guest on Saturday. Mrs. Baker's mother, Mrs. Lily Hodges who has been a house guest of the Bakers, returned with Miss Hodges to her home in Ludowici, Ga.
Mrs. Herman Creasman of Clinton, Tenn., spent Monday in Old Fort. Her mother, Mrs. Jack M. Nick, went back with her to spend a week in Clinton.
Mr. and Mrs. Glen Reynolds of Charlotte were week-end guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Max Hunt.
Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Faw spent Sunday visiting Mr. and Mrs. Er-

Mrs. Pemberton Rites Are Held
Last rites for Mrs. Frances Sturgeon Pemberton were held Friday afternoon, July 22, at 2 o'clock in the chapel of Harrison Funeral Home with the Rev. William Klein, pastor of the Presbyterian church, officiating, assisted by the Rev. Robert Walters, pastor of the State Street Methodist church. Burial was in Mountain View Memorial park.
Mrs. Pemberton died Wednesday afternoon in an Asheville hospital after a brief illness. A native of Suffolk, Va., she had lived in Black Mountain since 1940. She was a graduate of Holland college, Roanoke, Va.
Surviving are the husband, Jennings Pemberton; one brother, Myron Sturgeon of Virginia Beach, Va.; and several nieces and nephews.
Active pallbearers were L. C. Atkins, Dick Reed, George Gudgeon, William Hickey, Bud Cordell and Harry Hyder.

OES DISTRICT DEPUTIES VISIT BLACK M. CHAPTER
At the regular meeting of Black Mountain 200 Tuesday evening, July 19, Mrs. Evelyn Wilkerson, D.D.G.M., and Howard Setser, D.D.G.P., made their official visit to the chapter.
The chapter room was made very attractive with beautiful arrangements of gladioli in the East and West.
Presiding in the East were Mrs. Sadie Gouge, worthy matron, and Mr. Leroy Mashburn, W. P.
Following the ritualistic opening the deputies and other distinguished guests were officially welcomed as were visitors from other chapters in the district.
Mrs. Wilkerson brought greetings from the Worthy Grand Matron, and gave helpful instructions on various phases of the work, and commended the officers on their work. She closed with an inspiring message of "Truth" as it affects our daily lives. Mr. Setser made brief remarks and called up the chapter. The obligations were renewed, with officers, members, and visitors taking part.

Gifts were presented to the deputies by Martha Simmons, A. M. and Dick Tarbath, A. P.
Mrs. Gladys Ham, and Mr. Wm. Hinkle presented honorary membership certificates to the deputies. After the ritualistic closing, a social hour was enjoyed in the chapter dining room.

MRS. LONG ILL.
Mrs. Herman Tole, Mrs. W. D. Hyatt, and Mrs. W. T. Miller were luncheon guests of Mrs. Charles Cleveger last Wednesday. After lunch Mrs. Hyatt, Mrs. Cleveger and Mrs. Miller drove to Morganton to visit Mrs. Charles Long, who is a former resident of Black Mountain and is now ill.

This clipping will entitle T. L. Jones and one guest to free admission to see "The Man From Bitter Ridge" at the Pix Theater.
