To Be One of Best

RALEIGH, Sept. — North Carolinians were reminded today that time is drawing near for the 1955 edition of one of the state's most popular events—the N. C. State Fair, set for Oct. 18 through 22.

Persons interested in entering animals or objects in the quest of blue ribbons and a part of the more than $60,000 in cash premiums were urged to make their entries early.

Dr. J. S. Dorton, State Fair manager, said entries are already being planned from every section of the state, and added that it was his hope that the entire amount set aside for cash premiums would be won this year. Some $17,000 remained in the State Fair premium budget following last year's fair.

The entire competitive line-up of entry classes has been revised, according to Dorton, with many new features being added.

Entry closing dates for the 1955 State Fair are as follows:

Livestock division (beef, dairy, and dual purpose cattle, swine, sheep, and light horses and ponies) — Saturday, Sept. 30, 1955, at 6 p.m.

Poultry, pigeons and Rabbits division—live poultry and pigeons, Monday, Oct. 10, 1955, at 6 p.m.; all other departments in this division, Wednesday, Oct. 12, 1955, at 6 p.m.

Cut flowers (horticulture dept.) — Tuesday, Oct. 18, 1955, at 11 a.m.

Arts and crafts — Wednesday, Oct. 12, 1955, at 6 p.m.

All other divisions and departments, Saturday, Oct. 15, 1955, at 6 p.m.

The W.M.S. will hold their general meeting Monday night at the church. They are privileged to have as guest speaker Miss Bonnie Lance. Miss Delores Dollar will bring the special message in song. All women are welcome to attend and the church feels that no phase of their work is more important than this organization. The men of the church are working on the parking lot at the church. Some of the lot has been graded and the goal is to finish the grading and cover with gravel. Jo Riddle is giving one load of gravel and others of us who can are asked to help.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. McDonald and daughter Sandra of Beverly Hills are spending the week end at Fontana Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Thompson and children David and Vicky of Violet Hills are spending a few days of much needed rest at the beach.

Mrs. Julia Kent of Kerlee Heights has been spending a few days with the Fred Watson family at their home on lower Craig circle. She is now visiting the Robert Garris family on Macedonia road.

On Friday night, Sept. 6, a business meeting of officers and teachers of Beverly Hills church was held at the church with a large number in attendance.
