Beverly Hills News

Mrs. Fred Watson
Box 9194, Asheville, N. C.
The Fidelis, Ruth and older men's class of Beverly Hills Baptist church met on last Thursday night in the log building for the fellowship hour at 7:30, and in the main auditorium for the showing of some slides by Mrs. Johnson and daughter. These were pictures taken in Alaska where both Mrs. Johnson and her daughter have visited and were some of the most beautiful pictures I have ever seen. Mrs. Johnson has a son, Harold, who with his wife and son lives in Alaska. After the showing of the slides, the business meetings were held in the class rooms. A new resident was elected for the Fidelis class. She is Mrs. M. C. Keating. The other officers were retained, except some of the committee.
The Fidelis class bought paint and Circle No. 2 of the W. M. U. painted the nursery. It's very clean and pretty with its new coat of paint and new window curtains. The nursery is open for every service with capable ladies in attendance.
This week we have the Training Union course at Beverly Hills Baptist church each night for the adults. The juniors and intermediates will meet Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday nights. Rev. Hughes, our associational missionary, will teach the adults; Mrs. Audrey McDonald, the intermediates; and Mrs. Roy Thompson the juniors.
We welcome to our church 12 new members.
W. M. U. week of prayer will be Nov. 7-11, and state convention Nov. 15-17. This convention will be at the First Baptist church in Asheville.
C. N. Justice of Azalea drive, who has been seriously ill in St. Joseph hospital for several weeks is at his home now much improved and is able to receive visitors.
Roy Thompson of Violet Hills apts., who has been in Oteen VA hospital for a check up, has been discharged. Roy is one of our faithful church members and we were glad to hear the good news and have him back in our midst.
The intermediate B. T. U. class of Beverly Hills Baptist church was honored with a Halloween party last Thursday in Violet Hills by the directors, Mrs. Audrey McDonald and Ballard Harrison. There was a large crowd of merry-makers present and a good time

ACCIDENT FACTS
1954
RALEIGH. — Does it pay to be super cautious at intersections? The Motor Vehicles Department, in summarizing last year's fatal auto accidents, found that 99 death dealing smashups occurred at intersections. In all there were 12,681 intersection accidents ranging from the 99 fatal to 2,403 injury accidents to 10,179 property damage mishaps.
Games were played and refreshments served.
Miss Ruby Long of Morristown, Tenn., was a week-end visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Long at their home on Tunnel road. Mrs. Willie Boatman, sister of Mr. Long, and Ruby, who has been at the Long home for several weeks returned to Morristown with Ruby.
Fred Watson and family of Lower Craig, Donald Stroupe of Middle Grassy Branch, and Mrs. M. C. Keating went to Cherokee on Sunday after Sunday school at Beverly Hills Baptist church. We carried the outdoor grill along and in grilling the hamburgers they (the hamburgers) got up-set and we resorted to other meat for lunch. Other than shivering so that we could hardly feed ourselves we had a good time.
Mrs. Fred Watson and daughter, Sandra of Lower Craig circle and Donald Stroupe of Middle Grassy Branch recently visited Mrs. Watson's aunt Mrs. R. E. Sheppard and family at their home in the Jupiter section. Mrs. Watson also recently visited her cousin, Mrs. Maude Rogers and Jack Hughes in Memorial Mission hospital. Mrs. Watson, Sandra, and Donald also attended the Halloween carnival at Biltmore High school on Friday night.
—At the half-way mark in 1955, North Carolina's fall fed calf sales were maintaining a higher average than last year.

WILL GIVE TALK
Mrs. Thomas S. Sharp, 2nd V. of the Asheville Chapter of U. D. C., will give an illustrated talk before the Chapter on Thursday. Her subject will be "The origin, evolution, and the principal flags of other countries which have influenced its design."
—Tar Heel beef cattlemen have the opportunity to sell cattle at 13 fat cattle sales this year.
