WILSON SISTERS—

blessings have been poured out upon them. A wonderful promise has been fulfilled "Call upon me in the day of trouble, I will deliver thee and thou shalt glorify me, saith the Lord."
If all of the people in this country were as kind and considerate as the Christian people in Black Mountain, it would be impossible for the Communists to get a foothold here.
They wish to pay a tribute of appreciation to North Carolina, to Buncombe county and two of the choicest communities in the state, Black Mountain and Lakey Gap.
An undertaker friend years ago had promised that when the time came, he claimed the privilege of taking them for the last rites, to their native state, West Virginia.
But when that day arrives they wish to be laid in the good earth of the Old North State, their adopted home.
Miss Anne and Miss Lyde Wilson.

Are you buying Fresh Flour?
Remember when fresh flour was as near as the old mill down the road? Fresh flour is still that near . . . Chesterfield flour, milled in Asheville. It's full of the old-fashioned goodness of fresh ground wheat. Makes the lightest, fluffiest and tastiest biscuits you ever popped in your mouth! Insist on Chesterfield flour, in the bright new bag with the green four leaf clover.

Nothing without wings climbs like a '56 Chevrolet!

The new '56 Chevrolet handles hills like they aren't even there! Aim it up a steep grade . . . and you'll see why it's the Pikes Peak record breaker!

Ever level off a mountain with your foot? Nothing to it. Just point this new '56 Chevy uphill and ease down on the gas.
In the merest fraction of a second you sense that big bore V8 lengthening out its stride. And up you go with a quiet rush of power (hydraulic-hushed valve lifters now in all engines—V8 or 6) that makes a mountain seem as flat as a road-map!

For nothing without wings climbs like a '56 Chevrolet! This is the car, you know, that broke the Pikes Peak record. The car that conquered towering grades and vicious switchback turns to prove its superior performance, handling ease and cornering ability.
These are built-in qualities that mean more driving pleasure and safety for you. You can also have such safety features as seat belts, with or without shoulder harness, and instrument panel padding at extra cost.

You've a choice of 19 frisky new Chevrolets all with Fisher Body and with horsepower ranging up to 205. Drop in, when you have a chance, and drive the new record breaker!

THE HOT ONE'S EVEN HOTTER!
