Last Rest for W. C. Silver.
Funeral services were conducted on Saturday afternoon, Jan. 28 for W. C. Silver, 86, of Old Fort, who passed away in his sleep early Friday morning at his home on Commerce street. He had been in declining health for the past few years.

The Rev. Terry Thorpe, pastor of the Old Fort Baptist church, conducted the services. Burial was in the Old Fort cemetery in the family plot which adjoins the plot of the Crawford family. Mr. Silver's oldest daughter, Mrs. O. C. Silver Crawford, who died in 1950, is buried there. Pall bearers were grandsons and nephews: Bill Crawford of Portsmouth, Va.; J. R. Crawford of Newport News, Va.; David Whitaker, Hampton, Va.; Max Calloway, Hickory, N. C.; Brantly Wilson of Newport News, Va.; and Lester Calloway of Drexel, N. C.

Survivors are the widow, Mrs. Josephine Calloway Silver; two sons, Ed Silver of Old Fort, and Jay C. of Buckroe Beach, Va.; five daughters, Mrs. Ollie Schauer of Monticello, Ind.; Mrs. Bonnie Silver Reynolds, Mrs. Jessica Silver Gibbs, Mrs. Brady Silver Skidmore, and Miss Ada Silver, all of Old Fort; one foster son, John R. Lewis, and one foster daughter, Miss Katy Morgan, Silver of Old Fort; 23 grandsons, and 27 great-grandchildren; five brothers, J. M. Silver of Pickens, S. C.; J. A. and Leon Silver of Old Fort, and J. Y. and A. L. Silver of Jefferson City, Tenn.; and three sisters, Mrs. W. A. Schauer of George Washington, Va.; Mrs. J. M. Bradley of Flat Rock, and Mrs. John C. of Hendersonville.

Arrangements were under direction of Westmoreland-Hawkins Funeral home of Marion.

This writer who has been a neighbor and friend of the Silver family since childhood, deems it a privilege to offer the following tribute to his memory:
Will Silver was an unusual man in many ways. He was a master craftsman in a dozen different fields, and he put part of himself into every task he performed. He was a devoted husband and father, and his grandchildren and great-grandchildren loved him, and he loved them. All little children were his friends and they were quick to recognize his true affection for them. Passersby often smiled at the sight of "Grandpa" with a baby on his lap, and older children clustered around, listening fascinated to some little story meant only for their ears.

A kinder, more generous neighbor would be hard to find. Many a less fortunate person has benefited in an unobtrusive manner from the labor and purse of the Silver household.
Those who are aware of the fact that Mr. and Mrs. Silver for 55 years had one or more students leaving their door each morning to attend Old Fort school. This past Christmas Day marked the sixtieth wedding anniversary of the Silvers. They were married on Curtis Creek in 1895. Both are descendants of pioneer families. The Silver family came to North Carolina from Maryland right after the Revolutionary War. The first Silver came to America about 1750 from the "Rhine" in Europe. The deceased was the son of John and Mary Hicks Silver of this section, and was born in Mitchell county.

Our neighbor retained many of the traits of his forebears. He was dignified, hardworking, independent, and self-sufficient, but
