"THE COMMUNITY MEETING PLACE"

Methodist
Revival services at the Methodist church will be held April 15 through April 25, including the regular Sunday services, at 7:30 p.m. Rev. George Culbreth, Bethesda Tabernacle Methodist church, will be principal speaker at the revival. Special music will be rendered at each service.

P. T. A.
Swannanoa PTA will hold Open House April 19, at 7:30 p.m., in the school, to give parents the opportunity to see representative exhibits and displays depicting some of the activities and studies of the year. These exhibits will include a variety of subjects such as: the arts, written work, maps, charts, science, social studies, and many others that are interpretative or creative. There will be no charge for the exhibit. Each parent will want to see the work of their own child's class, and that done by the grade into which the child will go next year. Each exhibit and display will be in the classroom and corridor adjacent to that room. Mrs. Glenn Brown is in charge of the program.

W. S. C. S.
The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church was held on Wednesday evening, April 11, at 7:30 p.m. Mrs. George Johnston had charge of the program. "Christian Discipleship Today" The hostesses were Mrs. Ned Burtleson and Mrs. Nell Bass.

April Fool
Easter and April Fools Day coming on the same day caused April Fools Day to be put aside this year, appropriately that it should give way to Easter. But to me, this has been April Fools Week, as I have been told stories about musicians hired to entertain railroad crews to help keep the men in time with their work; a buck rabbit that gets out of its cage and comes back at feeding time and climbs in the cage himself. There is such a dish as stone stew. What worries me is where are the fishing tales, now that fishing season has rolled around?

Men's Club
Approximately 35 members of the Men's club came to the supper meeting on April 2. Invocation was given by Rev. C. W. Bates. The men enjoyed a film, "Fifty-one Eighteen", presented by Hardy Davidson, courtesy of Public Relations at Champion Fiber Co., at Canton. Good business practices were brought out in this film. The treasurer, B. L. Shaver, read his report, followed by the business, conducted by E. N. Howell, president. Decision was made in regard to final payments on lots purchased by the club. Maurice Jones, chairman of the Finer Carolina committee, and Horace Strout, project chairman, gave good reports on work that is being done. Vacant lots have been cleaned and garbage cans placed.

Home Demonstration Club
Mrs. C. W. Bates' home was the focal point on April 2 of the Home Demonstration club meeting. She was assisted by Mrs. H. W. Cole. Members present: Mrs. A. B. Whit, Mrs. Agnes Penland, Mrs. D. M. Connolly, Mrs. Joe Porcher, Mrs. W. H. McMurray Sr., Mrs. W. H. Noah, Mrs. Eugene Loven, Mrs. Allan Campfield, Mrs. J. F. Brown, and Mrs. Charles Porter. Announcements were made regarding future workshops and important meetings of all clubs in the county. Members were urged to attend a meeting in Asheville regarding the fluoridation of water. The report given by Mrs. Loven and Mrs. Brown concerning the Music Workshop they attended with Mrs. Cole, March 26, at Canton, took the interest of those attending. Miss Kimball, assistant to Dr. Hoffman, director of public music for the schools of North Carolina, was the guest speaker. Miss Kimball told of the history of our church hymns, the type and purpose of them, and the proper usage of them. She approves of modern type songs, but deplors the idea that our youth have lagging in concern. All type of music has its place but classics must be appreciated. She gave several examples of dance steps to complete a most informative meeting on music and dancing.

Sue Evans, home demonstration agent for Buncombe county, spoke on "Raise Your Own Meal" which was helpful and timely. Canning of food took the spotlight also, as she gave many useful hints which were new to those who were planning ways in which they may raise money. For instance, the next entertainment will be a masquerade party for May 3. All students of Owen High are invited, as an evening of fun is being planned. Plans are to charge 35 cents single and 50 cents double. Please support the Mus club in this worthwhile cause.

Stork Shower
Mrs. Jacke Capps was honored with a shower on Thursday night in the home of Mrs. Lilly May Miller, with Mrs. Ruth Bailey assisting. The table was decked in a lace tablecloth, with a centerpiece of white and pink snapdragons, and blue delphinium, arranged in a pink baby carriage in a most attractive manner by Mrs. R. W. Seawright. The honored guests were: Mrs. John Brown, Mrs. Joe Porcher, Mrs. Carrie W. Harrison, Mrs. A. B. Whit, Mrs. T. J. Hunter, Mrs. Leuschke, Mrs. Charlie Porter, Mrs. S. M. Wolf, and Mrs. C. W. Bates.

Mrs. Harding gave the closing prayer. Mrs. Charles Hall, hostess, served homemade cup cakes and ice cream.

"North American BYW", program for circles this month, was given by three members, in which they told of its first organization, first meeting and its purpose. A social hour was enjoyed by Mrs. J. H. McKinney, Mrs. Edison Allen, Mrs. Mabel Taylor, Mrs. Shaver, Mrs. Hornaday, and Mrs. Early.

WMU Meeting in Asheville
Four ladies represented Swannanoa at the 32nd annual Buncombe Association WMU meeting in Asheville on April 4. Attending were Mrs. Fred Davidson, Mrs. Charles Smith, Mrs. W. C. Shope, and Mrs. A. R. Reed Sr.

Youth Sunday
First Baptists observed Youth Sunday by having the privilege of hearing Donald Gan, seminary student at Furman, preach the Sunday morning sermon. Many friends remember Donald and are delighted to see him in this work.

Unlucky Thirteen
Johnny Buckner celebrated his 13th birthday on April 4, and he is thinking 13 is very unlucky. The day was spent in bed accompanied by the flu bug. Don't be discouraged, Johnny, better days are ahead. Johnny is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Buckner.

Meal Table
It is hoped that other men reading this will take an example of what is being done and give the ladies a break. Let me explain, first, the men turned the tables or reversed the usual procedure, and the men of the Methodist church treated the ladies to supper on the night of April 2 at the church. They prepared the food, set the table, served, and even washed the dishes. Harry Noblitt brought the ham. H. Farr, the string beans, George Leuschke, baked peach pie, and Earnest Hobart made the fruit salad. All the men took part in making the supper such a success. Approximately 50 attended and no one has reported any ill effects from the men's successful cooking efforts. Let this be an example for others to follow.

Music Club
Approximately 30 came to the meeting of the Swannanoa Music club Thursday night in the community building. Carolyn Luckadoo, Clara Ann Pickens, Laura Smith, and Gwen Nanney were responsible for the program. The business was conducted by the president, Sue Anderson. Annette Meeks gave the devotionals.

Those on the program were Annette Meeks, Inez Mills, Sue Anderson, Nancy Allen, Julia Ray Vickers, Clara Ann and Virginia Pickens, Frances Kaplan, Joan Allen, and Ann Walker. Refreshment committee, Barbara Hamby, and Ruth Wilson, Davy Hamby, and Ruth Wilson. The club has been successful in efforts to raise money to finance the new P.A. system for the clubhouse as their part in the Finer Carolina program. However, they are still lacking in funds and have planned ways in which they may raise money. For instance, the next entertainment will be a masquerade party for May 3. All students of Owen High are invited, as an evening of fun is being planned. Plans are to charge 35 cents single and 50 cents double. Please support the Mus club in this worthwhile cause.

Garden Club
Mrs. C. W. Bates opened the Garden club meeting with devotionals on Thursday at the club house. Mrs. H. W. Cole gave the garden hints and showed a prayer book. A letter read by Mrs. John Brown from Mrs. Stevens, urged everyone to vote on the fluoridation of water issue, which comes up on May 26. Mrs. George Leuschke introduced Arthur Ratcliff who told how to prepare soil for planting of flowers and vegetables. An invitation was read from the American Home to a party on April 23. Mrs. Leuschke read the names of hostesses and programs for the coming year. Mrs. Cole and Mrs. Eugene Loven served as hostesses to: Mrs. John Brown, Mrs. Joe Porcher, Mrs. Carrie W. Harrison, Mrs. A. B. Whit, Mrs. T. J. Hunter, Mrs. Leuschke, Mrs. Charlie Porter, Mrs. S. M. Wolf, and Mrs. C. W. Bates.

Intermediate G.A.
The Intermediate G.A. of the First Baptist church met Monday night with Joan Walker. This particular night is set aside for their manual study, at which time they memorize verses, and other material pertaining to the Bible. As each member memorizes the required item she is allowed to go up one step. These steps are: maiden, lady in waiting, princess, queen regent, with scepter, and members observe home missions by taking flowers or food to the sick, or in some way remembering other people. Mrs. Thelma Hornaday and Mrs. Jackie Wright help with this group. Dorothy Johnson, Mars Hill college, was president; Gene Huntley, vice president; Ester Farr, secretary; Judy Luckadoo, program chairman. Also at the meeting: Marjorie Walker, Joyce Penley, McCuen, and Mary Kay Morgan.
